

Hitler May Resign as Chancellor of Germany

The Weather

World's Best Climate
Fair tonight and Wednesday

More and more people are reading
The Journal—it's more interesting.

Santa Ana Journal

VOL. 2, NO. 124

Published Every Afternoon
Except Sunday

SANTA ANA, CALIFORNIA, TUESDAY SEPTEMBER 22, 1936

2 CENTS PER COPY

HOME Edition

If your Journal is not delivered promptly, please phone 3600 before 8 p. m. and one will be sent you.

'GORILLA MAN' ADMITS MUIR MURDER

GOERING IS MENTIONED FOR POST

Hint Nazi Chief Wants To Quit Routine But Keep Leadership

By LOUIS P. LOCHNER

(Copyright, 1936, by Associated Press)
BERLIN. — Germany pondered today a widely-circulated report Adolf Hitler may resign as Nazi chancellor and retain the simple title of "Der Fuehrer" (the leader).

The same report mentioned Col.
Gen. Hermann Wilhelm Goering
as Hitler's possible successor.
Persons in authoritative circles refused to comment on the predictions.

"Just Torch Bearer"

However, the persistence with which the report has cropped up again and again and the divers and cautious quarters from which it emanates has led some observers to believe there might be an actual basis for the forecast.

Before assuming power, the reichschancellor often told his supporters:

"I am merely your torch bearer. You must close in behind me and attend to the details."

In addition, Hitler's declarations at the recent Nurnberg convention of the National Socialist party disclosed he has reverted to an increasing extent, to the role of standard bearer.

"The miracle of our time consists in the fact that you found me among so many millions," he said to his armed forces at the convention, "and Germany's good fortune consists in my having found you."

Should the reported resignation materialize and Goering succeed to the highest governmental post, Germany would be handed a new type of regime in which Hitler would be the moral voice of the nation and Goering the executive administrator.

This arrangement was believed to be under consideration as a measure to free Hitler from routine duties of state and offer him the opportunity to formulate, unhindered, the policies and programs which Goering, in his part, would undertake to make effective.

BAKERY CHIEF IN NEW JOB

Claude J. McDowell, for nine years manager of the Weber Baking company, here has resigned his position and will leave the first of next week for San Francisco to take charge of the Bakeries of the Kip Patrick Baking company, an organization with which he was connected before taking charge of the Weber company in this city.

His successor will be Vaughn
De Fries, who for the past year has been in charge of the San Francisco plant. De Fries will move to Santa Ana immediately.

During his residence in Santa Ana McDowell has been active in civic affairs. He is a past president of the Breakfast club, for two years was president of the Merchants association and a member of the Rotary club.

In severing his connections with Santa Ana business interests and personal friendships, McDowell said this afternoon it was a reluctant act on his part, but the new adventure appeared to offer such opportunities that he felt he should not refuse it.

SOFT SEATS, GOOD MUSIC

Theater-Goer Wakes at 5 a. m.

Ever go to sleep in a movie?
Blair Little, 107 North Parton street, did last night.

But that's not half. Imagine his embarrassment when he yawned, stretched and awoke at 5:02 a. m. today in a dark, closed theater!

It couldn't have been the rip-roaring Fenimore Cooper Indian picture or the Mickey Mouse, so it must have been the music and romance of the other half of the double bill. Anyway, he was

City Approves $50,000 Park Project

Cure for 'Shoe Leather' Steak Offered by Scout Class for Outdoor Cooks

By FRANK ORR

Remember the time when Mother made biscuits on that picnic up Polecat canyon and they looked like lumps of coal?
Or when Junior, who wasn't a Boy Scout, put the coffee pot over the fire without water in it—and the bottom fell out?
Sure you do. We've all had experiences like that. But then days—gone, sun. Orange county residents are now offered a sure cure for sand in the sandwiches, ants in the goulash, and steak

you could use for shoe soles.

His name is Tom Devine. Ask any Boy Scout who's been to camp whether Tom Devine can cook.
Like as not, the answer will be the cookie jar, he'll get so hungry at the memory of a Devine meal.

Open to All
And Tom Devine, under an arrangement made by Scout Executive Harrison White with the WPA recreational project, is going to show people the hows and the wherefores of camp cookery as it should be cooked.

He and White told a Journal reporter about it today.
"We've arranged with the WPA to make this thing possible," White explained. "We're opening to anyone—groups of any kind—the chance to learn about cooking in the open. All they have to do is call the Boy Scout headquarters or R. R. Russick's office in the courthouse annex. In addition, the Scouts are making Camp Irvine available for demonstrations whenever instruction is scheduled."

Hot Biscuits!
It seems cookery in the open isn't like trying an egg for breakfast. Many a prize-winning cake maker has flopped miserably on a batch of biscuits in the open.
That's why lots of picnickers have taken to carrying sandwiches or eating hot dogs, when they could be munching browned, fluffy biscuits; biting into a thick, juicy steak; or "dunking" bread in a delicious stew.

Which got White to talking about Devine's prowess at constructing biscuits.

"Why, Tom can take a reflector oven out in the open and make you a bunch of biscuits as good as any Mother used to make,"
he started.

But the reporter was hungry. He had gone out for a hamburger.
That talk about Tom Devine made him hungry!

The study is an outgrowth of passage by the last congress of the bill of Senator George (D., Please Turn to Page 2, Col. 2)

Ask $10,000 for Father's Death

Mrs. Juana Salazar and her three children, Ylaria, Enosencia and Roseta Salazar, started suit today in superior court against Carrie Lou Sutherland, asking $10,000 damages for the death of Blas Salazar.

Salazar died as the result of injuries sustained in an accident with the Sutherland car Aug. 5 at the intersection of Lamson avenue and Ninth street, in Garden Grove. Herbert R. Waterman is acting as attorney for the plaintiff.

La Habra Man Is Jailed on Drunk
Driving Charge

Dominic John Bastanchury, 55, member of a prominent La Habra ranching family, was in the county jail today on drunk driving charges, following his arrest by police early this morning.

Examined by a physician, Bastanchury was pronounced "very intoxicated" and taken to jail.

Stopped by officers at First and Western streets early this morning when he assertedly failed to heed a red light from a patrol car,
F. A. Arnalstein, 31, Los Angeles salesman, was booked on similar charges at the jail. Officers charged his car was weaving "all over the road."

Little found an emergency exit, stepped out, yawned and went on home to bed.

PLAN $83,000 REPAIRS ON SIDEWALKS

Councilman Smith Makes Bitter Attack Upon
Creek Parkway

Over the bitter opposition of Councilman Joseph P. Smith, an opponent of the Santiago creek park, the city council last night approved a request for a $83,000
WPA project for the park.

Smith, however, seconded a motion approving a project of $83,804 for repair of curbs, sidewalks, and gutters throughout the city.

"That's the rankest kind of boondoggling," Smith asserted in fighting the park project. He demanded that City Auditor Lloyd H. Banks report to the council at the next meeting the amount of money already spent on the park.

Grounds of the Santa Ana auto camp recently were purchased for $11,000 to furnish an entrance and recreation grounds.

Work For 63 Men
At Smith's insistence and on the advice of the city attorney, City Councilman Ernest H. Layton withdrew a motion for approval of both of the projects and submitted them separately. Smith cast the only "no" vote on the park project.

Park plans call for federal funds of $43,401 and city funds of $7,594, providing work for 63 men over a period of seven months.

The project would provide a bowling green, tennis courts, water system, ornamental lights, a recreation building, stores, tables, benches, community fireplaces, rest room remodeling, walks, trails, rock walls, and other facilities.

To Aid Safety
Further work on Santiago creek is provided for in the extensive sidewalk and curb project, which is designed to employ 90 men for six months and 74 men for another six months. Details showed provision for weed removal in the creek bed, and excavation of 19-700 cubic yards of dirt.

Principal purpose of the sidewalk project, according to the project request, is to repair sidewalk breaks which are a menace to safety. To be installed are 6000 feet of curb, about 3400 feet of sidewalk, and 90,000 square feet of gutter.

Ditches are to be cleaned and excavated on Flower street, Delhi street, Bristol street, and a number of miscellaneous gutters, park-ways, culverts and ditches.

Federal funds of $74,370 and city funds of $9434 are provided in the request.

AUSTIN AWAITS FLOOD WATER

MARBLE FALLS, Tex. (AP)— Flood waters of the Colorado river inundated fertile farm lands today as they moved downstream at a few miles an hour toward Austin.
They were expected to reach the capital, 55 river miles from here, late tonight or early tomorrow.

The river reached a flood stage of 27 feet here. It was expected to reach 30 to 35 feet at Austin.

'Let Baby Die,' Says Father; Mother Fights Mercy Death

CHICAGO, (AP)—A mother's plea for an operation that might save her baby's life, and the father's demand that the malformed infant be allowed to die a "mercy death" today confronted physicians at Danish-American hospital.

Mrs. Eva Tafel, 22, mother of the baby boy and of a normal and healthy daughter 2½ years old, pleaded "I want him." Her husband, Julian, a garage mechanic, replied: "It would be a sin to allow the poor child to live. He would probably be bedridden for life, and when he came to understand would curse us for allowing him to live!"

He's Archbishop

Bishop John J. Cantwell, head of the Catholic diocese of Los Angeles and San Diego, today was elevated by Pope Pius to the rank of archbishop. A bishop for the new San Diego diocese is to be appointed.

CANTWELL IS ELEVATED

Catholic Bishop Made
Archbishop; Diocese
Change Announced

CASTEL GANDOLFO, Italy. (AP)
Pope Pius today elevated the bishopric of Los Angeles to the archbishopric.

He also created the diocese of San Diego. The San Diego, Monterey, Fresno and Tucson bish-oprics were placed under Los Angeles.

The present bishop of Los Angeles, John G. Cantwell, automatically becomes archbishop, and will receive the pallium, symbol of his new office, following the next consistory.

A new bishop must be named for San Diego.

Vatican officials explained the new ecclesiastical arrangement was the result of the growing Catholic population of California.
San Diego previously had been part of the Los Angeles bishopric which had the title of bishopric of Los Angeles-San Diego.

Of the dioceses placed under the jurisdiction of the Los Angeles archbishopric, that of Monterey-Fresno had been under the San Francisco archdiocese, while Tuc-son was under Santa Fe.

Helena Feels Seven Quakes

HELENA, Mont. (AP)—Seven earth shocks were felt in Helena in the 12-hour period ended at 6
a. m. today, the weather bureau reported. Five shocks were described as "weak," and two as "moderate."

COUNTY WINS 11 AWARDS AT FAIR

Displays of Honey Also Rank High; 4-H Club
Entries Succeed

Let's go to the fair!
Orange county exhibitors are hanging up an enviable record at the Los Angeles county fair at Pomona. Eleven first place premiums were awarded exhibits from this county in this week's judging, County Agricultural Commissioner D. W. Tubbs announced today.

Among the first places taken by Orange county were:

The county display of avocados, guavas, jujubes and preserving tomatoes; exhibits of fresh lima beans, California bell peppers, pi-mientos and packed lug of Margiole tomatoes, and the displays of Ehrhardt, El Monte and Payne walnuts.

Honey Wins
Second place premiums were awarded to displays of pomegranates, Eureka and Pride of Ventura walnuts, Queensland nuts, and Escondido wheat.

The county general exhibit was given third place in the sweepstakes judging.

For the first time since Orange county honey has been exhibited at the fair, local entries placed higher than those from Los Angeles county. C. E. Lush of Orange announced today. Riverside county, which has won first place for the past 23 years, retained that standing, while Orange county placed second.

Lush, who directed the exhibit for the beekeepers' division of the
(Please Turn to Page 2, Col. 4)

COUNTY FAIR ENTRY PAYS

Orange county paid for its exhibit at the Sacramento and Pomona fairs this year with prize money the exhibit won.

County Agricultural Commissioner D. W. Tubbs, in his report to the board of supervisors today, indicated the exhibit won more than twice the amount of prize money taken in last year's fair.

In 1935 the county exhibit won $243 in premiums at the Sacramento state fair, as opposed to $684 won this year. In 1935 at the Los Angeles county fair the premiums totaled $269, as opposed to $560 won this year. The fruit used in the Sacramento exhibit was sold following the fair, for $65.10.

As a result of the premiums won the county expense for the exhibit will be only that of maintenance,
Tubbs said.

Machine Takes Shorthand Notes

The Stenotype made its first appearance in an Orange county court today.

Court notes in an estate battle in Superior Judge H. G. Ames court were taken on the instrument, which is a shorthand typewriter, said by its inventor to be infinitely faster than ordinary short hand methods.

The machine was manipulated by John W. LaPoint, Los Angeles court reporter, who invented it, and who is author of a book concerning mechanical shorthand.

Did You See:

CHIEF OF POLICE GEORGE
FRANZEN, Orange, aiding CHIEF
GUS BARNES, Placentia, in holding down a street corner?

THE CITY COUNCIL without an audience most of the evening?

GENE THOMAS of Santa Ana, JOHN WAGNER of Placentia and the McBeths of Anaheim receiving hearty applause as they passed the grandstand in the historical parade, Sunday at Los Angeles County fair?

Works for Divorce

John C. Neely, 22-year-old son of U.S. Senator Matthew M. Neely of West Virginia, is pictured at the dish-washing job he held in a Reno night club to support himself while waiting to get a divorce from his wife, the former Mary Kathryn Faust of Fairmont,
W. Va. (Associated Press photo.)

LEWIS YACHT SOLD TODAY

Balboa Man's 'Stranger'
II' Goes to Marion Huntington

The big steam yacht Stranger II, once the pride of Newport harbor, and the vessel which carried Fred S. Lewis, Southern California capitalist and sportsman and Balboa resident on many world adventures, was sold today to Miss Marion Huntington of San Francisco, daughter of the late Henry E. Huntington.

The Stranger II had been in dry dock at the Craig shipyards in Long Beach for the past year.
It was docked there when Capt.
Lewis took charge of his new yacht and motorship Stranger III.

To Sail North
Sale of the yacht was negotiated by C. H. Hopkins of Balboa, general manager of the Lewis affairs, and Joseph Pugh, personal agent for Miss Huntington. The Stranger
II is valued at approximately $60,000, according to reports. Miss Huntington will take the yacht to San Francisco immediately. She arrived in Long Beach yesterday to take delivery of the craft.

The Stranger II is a steel steam yacht with a length of 173 feet and a 20-foot beam. She is fitted with a 600-horsepower turbine engine. The boat was built in 1915 at the Lawley shipyards on the east coast and was brought to Southern California when she was purchased by Lewis several years ago. The craft made its home port in Newport harbor for many years and took Lewis on several trips to south sea waters and to Alaska.

Now in South Seas
Last year Lewis took delivery of the Stranger III, 234-foot mo-torship. He is at present on a world cruise, stopping in the South Sea islands and at Hawaii, with Mrs. Lewis. A group of more than 20 Southern California Sea Scouts make up part of the crew aboard the Stranger III on the trip.

What's Doing Tonight?

How often has a friend or member of the family asked you that? And you have answered "I don't know," or have made some brief and not very informative reply. There is an easy way to save embarrassment when someone pops this question to you. Simply refer him to The Journal where a daily calendar listing the important public events is always carried. Today it is on page 9. Look it over—it's a regular feature in The Journal—the paper that gives all the news.

NOW INMATE OF INSANE HOSPITAL

Head of Institution at Patton Discredits
Hazell Confession

SAN DIEGO, (AP)—A powerfully built inmate of a mental institution confessed, police said today, the last slaying of Ruth Muir, social worker, at suburban La Jolla Aug. 31.

Despite the police statement,
Superintendent Eugene Max Webster of the state insane hospital at Patton expressed belief the "gorilla man," Donald J. Hazell, 30, had nothing to do with the killing.

"Would Say Anything?"
"Hazell is insane and would say anything," Webster said when told of the reputed confession.

Hazell, who weighs 225 pounds, was taken into custody while a coroner's inquest into the Muir death was being held. The suspect was wandering in a near-by street muttering unintelligible questions. He told police he was eight years old.

Police Chief George Sears said he was informed Hazell had signed the asserted confession.

Deputy Sheriff Walter Blue and Police Officer Ed Stotler, who reported Hazell confessed to them, said the man told them he sometimes had psychic spells "come over me" and compel me to take a life.

On Parole at Time
The officers quoted Hazell as saying he approached Miss Muir as she stood "behind a bench" along the ocean shore, and then dragged her into a nearby ravine.

Hazell was on parole from a mental institution at the time of his arrest, police said, and was taken to the state hospital for confinement instead of to jail.

BASEBALL

(By Associated Press)

NATIONAL LEAGUE
(First Game)
New York 120 202 000—7 13 2
Philadelphia 071 002 01x—11 15 2
Smith, Castleman and Mancuso, Danning; Passeau, Bowman and Wilson.

(Second Game)
New York 200 0xx xxx—
Philadelphia 020 3xx xxx—
Gahler, Coffman and Mancuso; Walters and Grace.

(First Game)
Brooklyn 200 000 0xx—
Boston 000 200 11x—4 12 1 Butcher, Winston, Eisenstat and Pheps; Lanning, Cantwell and Lopez.

(Second Game)
Brooklyn 200 000 0xx—
Boston 000 000 0xx—
Jeffcoat and Pheps; Chaplin and Muehr.

Pittsburgh 004 00x xxx—
Chicago 200 20x xxx—
Hoyt and Padden; French, Davis and Hartnett.

Cincinnati 1xx xxx xxx—
St. Louis 0xx xxx xxx—
Frey and Lombardi; Phippen and Davis.

AMERICAN LEAGUE
Chicago 060 xxx xxx—
Cleveland 330 xxx xxx—
Stratton, Cheinl and Sewell; Galehouse, Lee and Sullivan.

(First Game)
St. Louis 000 000 000—0 5 2
Detroit 120 400 23x—12 18 0
Caldwell, Jackucki and Hems-ley; Auker and Tebbetts.

(Second Game)
St. Louis 00x xxx xxx—
Detroit 00x xxx xxx—
Van Atta and Hemsley; Bridges and Tebbetts.

Boston 000 000 xxx—
Washington 000 000 xxx—
Walberg and Ferrell; Cascarella and Hogan.

MADRID DIGS IN TO HALT ASSAULT

Rebels, in Relentless Drive, Forging on Toward Capital

(Copyright, 1936, by Associated Press)
MADRID.—Spanish government troops dug in for a desperate counter-offensive today, eight miles behind Maqueda, key town on the highway to Madrid, as the insurgent army drove steadily toward the capital.
The government stand, reported to be at Santa Cruz del Retamas, would put the onrushing insurgents less than 40 miles from the capital.
Fugitives from Madrid who crossed the French border said the capital was on war-edges as the insurgents swiftly forced its defenses back, and staged repeated air raids.
Officials concerned
They said street crowds militantly raised clenched fists and shouted "No pasaran" (they shall not pass) but officials were deeply concerned.
Precautions, they reported, were being made against gas attacks, and first-aid stations were maintaining constant vigil.
Others reaching France reported Fascist planes dropped circulars on Madrid, Bilbao and Santander urging the cities to surrender and "avoid bloodshed."
Rebels Forge Ahead
Forging ahead on the Talavera-Madrid highway behind a shield of machine-gun and artillery fire, Fascist commanders were confident their well-trained soldiers could resist the government militia's defense. They said the day for Gen. Francisco Franco's supreme effort to storm Madrid "might be close."
Capture of Maqueda, opening direct roads to Madrid and Toledo, was announced officially by the Burgos provisional government.
Accounts in London said the insurgents were concentrating for an onslaught against Madrid from all sides and reported a major battle in the Talavera sector, apparently for the Toledo-Madrid highway junction.
The besieged insurgents in the Alcazar at Toledo were driven underground under a steel hall of shell and bullet fire after government artillery had leveled the last standing tower of the historic citadel.
Surrounding the ruined fortress, a line of government militia waited for the postponed order which would send them into a hand-to-hand attack to batter down the last resistance from the caverns under the Alcazar ruins.

REPORT ITALIANS HAVE 'GRABBED' MALLORCA
(Copyright, 1936, by Associated Press)
MADRID.—An "Italian dictatorship" has been established on the Spanish island of Mallorca, the newspaper La Voz charged today, after the arrival of 11 seaplanes commanded by the Italian Lieutenant Rossi.
"Mallorca has actually been made an Italian colony," the newspaper asserted.
Shortly after the arrival of government troops from Barcelona, the paper declared, insular officials made a hurried departure. Then followed an exchange of messages between the island authorities, Gen. Francisco Franco, commander-in-chief of the Fascist insurgents, and Juan March, Spanish millionaire whom the government has charged with financing the rebellion against the Madrid government, La Voz said.
General Franco at once communicated with Italian officials and 12 hours later the first Italian seaplane arrived at Palma, the island's principal city, the newspaper added.

Indigent Problems To Be Discussed
Taking as her subject "Indigent Problems," Miss Katherine Jeffries, case worker in the Orange county welfare department, will speak Wednesday at 7:30 p. m., in the Unitarian church, as one of a series of speakers on the welfare work of this county.
Miss Jeffries, who came to the local department in 1933, has been in welfare work most of her life, receiving her early training in Wells Memorial settlement house, founded and managed in Minneapolis by Margaret B. Chapman. For a brief period she left this work to act as manager of a factory where she received commercial experience. She has been a California resident since 1928, and was manager and social work director at a hospital in San Clemente for two years.

FREE ON BAIL
Wanted in Oceania to answer charges of a minor traffic violation, Max Lowell Brookman of Buena Park was arrested by sheriff's officers and freed on $15 bail yesterday.

GET IN ON THE JOURNAL'S Weather Predicting Contest
I forecast:
The first 1-inch rain will start..... day hour
The first desert wind will start..... day hour
NAME.....
ADDRESS.....
Winner of Rain Contest gets a new umbrella from Rankin's and winner of Wind Contest gets a Dobbs hat from Swanberg's.
SEND FORECASTS TO JOURNAL CONTEST EDITOR

Who Said the Olympics Were Over?

MORE ABOUT EDUCATION
(Continued From Page 1)
Ga.) authorizing an increase over the next few years of more than $10,000,000 in federal contributions to the states for vocational education. The act will become operative next July 1, but congress will have to appropriate the additional funds first.
In a letter to the committee membership made public today, the President pointed out that when he signed the bill he indicated a belief that before it took effect the "whole subject should be reviewed by a disinterested group."

President's Idea
"It is my thought," he said, "that such a group should study the experience under the existing program of federal aid for vocational education, the relation of such training to general education and to prevailing economic and social conditions, and the extent of the need for an expanded program."
"I take pleasure in inviting you to accept membership on a committee to make such studies and to develop recommendations which will be available to the congress and to the executive. The services of the several federal departments will be available to this committee. Traveling expenses incurred by members in attending committee meetings will be met by the government."

Those on Committee
He added he hoped each person named would find it possible to "assist in the development of a sound basis for a program of vocational education which will be of maximum benefit to those affected."
Others named on the committee were John P. Frey, secretary-treasurer, metal trades department, American Federation of Labor; Thomas Kennedy, lieutenant governor of Pennsylvania and secretary-treasurer, United Mine Workers of America; Elizabeth Christian, secretary-treasurer, National Women's Trade Union League of America.
Henry C. Taylor, director, Farm Foundation, Chicago; Dr. Edmund Brunner, Teachers college, Columbia University, New York; Alice Edwards, executive secretary, American Home Economics Association; Roland Allen, personnel manager, Ayers Department store, Indianapolis; T. J. Thomas, president, Burlington Mines, Chicago.
Others on Committee
John H. Zink, president, American Society of Heating and Ventilating Engineers, Baltimore; Rev. George Johnson, director, department of education, National Catholic Welfare Conference, Washington, D. C.; Dr. A. B. Moehlman, professor of education, University of Michigan; Henry Esberg, Vocational Rehabilitation authority, New York.
Oscar Chapman, assistant secretary of the interior; Katherine

FOWL DINNERS POPULAR Police Doom Loud Birds

MORE ABOUT FAIR PRIZES
(Continued From Page 1)
Farm bureau, won five first and seven second places with his honey, and won either a first or a second in every division he entered.
4-H Victories
LeRoy Bell, of the Bell Apiaries, Orange, won first prizes for both his Caucasian and Italian queens, against a field of 10 queens in the bee division, it was announced. Jim Crawford, Olive, won a first prize for his sage honey.
Orange county 4-H clubs ranked high with other clubs of the state, with Paul Foss of Yorba Linda taking first place with his Berkshire sow, and Clair Wakeham of Garden Grove second for his Hereford steer.
Others winners were Lester Paulus, Orange, best fowl in American class; John Hastings, Anaheim; best fowl in Mediterranean class; Bruce Gelker, Olive, third for his Flemish steel-gray rabbit; Joe Lieb, Jr., Anaheim, first, second and third for his pigeons.
Feature Booths
Gordon Sieveke, Anaheim, second for his Rhode Island red hen; Evelyn Truxler, Anaheim, special first on pen of Brahmas; Victor Heim, Anaheim, first for Rhode Island red hen; Everett and Richard Ristow, Olive, third for white leghorn entries; Billie Burdig, Olive, second and fifth for white leghorns.
Two county 4-H clubs entered feature booths at the fair, and each of these received $10 cash prizes. The Katella farmers, led by A. C. Sutliff, and the La Habra club, directed by R. E. Launer, were the prize winners.
For girls' clubs, feature booths were entered by the Tustin Live-wires, Magnolia Girls, and the Chat 'n' Sew club of Centralia, under the leadership of Mrs. G. D. Griset, Mrs. G. S. Davis and Mrs. E. L. Davis. These exhibits were awarded approximately $30 in prizes.
Besides the feature booths a large number of clothing and home

Four Get Right To Drive Taxis

Four men last night gained consent of the city council to be allowed to drive taxicabs in the city. Licenses were ordered issued to Gettie E. Carlisle, 912 Orange avenue; Walter G. Bozeman, 2008 Halladay street; Ernie Acker, 618 West Third street; and to Henry L. Hutton, 1142 South Garney street.

WALNUTS STOLEN

For assertedly stealing three sacks of walnuts from the C. R. Cook ranch, San Juan baptist, on Sunday, Dominic Doran and a 15-year-old boy were arrested yesterday by sheriff's officers.

Lenroot, chief of children's bureau, labor department; Mordecai Ezekiel, economic adviser, agriculture department; Ernest Draper, assistant secretary of commerce; and Gordon R. Clapp, personnel director, TVA.

Appointment of this committee came soon after the President made public a letter to Senator Bankhead (D., Ala.) and Chairman Jones (D., Tex.) to the house agriculture committee asking them to cooperate "in preparing plans for meeting the (farm) tenancy problem that might be undertaken by the federal government."

Farm Tenant Situation
The letter coincided with a meeting on this question called by Gov. J. Marion Futrell of Arkansas at Little Rock, where the farm tenancy question has been a live one for months.
Bankhead, a member of the senate agriculture committee, sponsored a bill at the last session which would have set up a billion-dollar federal corporation to finance long-time loans to tenants, share-croppers and farm laborers to assist them in purchasing their own farms and homes. Stiff floor opposition sent the bill back to the committee, where it was revised with what proponents described as "safeguard" clauses, but the measure never came to another vote.
While recognizing the tenancy problem could not be solved "overnight," the President said other countries, notably Ireland and Denmark, had increased ownership of farm land substantially through government financing of tenants.

MORE ABOUT FAIR PRIZES

(Continued From Page 1)
Farm bureau, won five first and seven second places with his honey, and won either a first or a second in every division he entered.

4-H Victories
LeRoy Bell, of the Bell Apiaries, Orange, won first prizes for both his Caucasian and Italian queens, against a field of 10 queens in the bee division, it was announced. Jim Crawford, Olive, won a first prize for his sage honey.

Orange county 4-H clubs ranked high with other clubs of the state, with Paul Foss of Yorba Linda taking first place with his Berkshire sow, and Clair Wakeham of Garden Grove second for his Hereford steer.

Others winners were Lester Paulus, Orange, best fowl in American class; John Hastings, Anaheim; best fowl in Mediterranean class; Bruce Gelker, Olive, third for his Flemish steel-gray rabbit; Joe Lieb, Jr., Anaheim, first, second and third for his pigeons.

Feature Booths
Gordon Sieveke, Anaheim, second for his Rhode Island red hen; Evelyn Truxler, Anaheim, special first on pen of Brahmas; Victor Heim, Anaheim, first for Rhode Island red hen; Everett and Richard Ristow, Olive, third for white leghorn entries; Billie Burdig, Olive, second and fifth for white leghorns.

Two county 4-H clubs entered feature booths at the fair, and each of these received $10 cash prizes. The Katella farmers, led by A. C. Sutliff, and the La Habra club, directed by R. E. Launer, were the prize winners.

For girls' clubs, feature booths were entered by the Tustin Live-wires, Magnolia Girls, and the Chat 'n' Sew club of Centralia, under the leadership of Mrs. G. D. Griset, Mrs. G. S. Davis and Mrs. E. L. Davis. These exhibits were awarded approximately $30 in prizes.

Besides the feature booths a large number of clothing and home

Monkey Face Squashes Are Offered in Free Ads

If you want any monkey face squashes, cheap, go out to see Roger Colman, near the county hospital. Roger sent in his ad today for The Journal's free column in which children can advertise their merchandise for sale or trade.
Here's his ad:
FOR SALE—Homer pigeons, 50 cents each. Monkey face squashes, cheap. Roger Colman, route 2, box 97B, Orange. Lewis street, one-half mile west, one-half mile south of county hospital.
David Wilson wants to trade puppies.
WANTED—To trade puppies for banana chickens, 50 cents. Kent Williamson, 1309 South Van Ness, Santa Ana.
For a limited time The Journal will run ads for youngsters free.

MARKELHEADS CHEST UNIT

Appointment of chairmen for the business districts and the public employees departments made today by D. G. Tidball, general chairman, complete the enrollment of leaders for the various units of the Santa Ana Community Chest campaign. All leaders are now enlisting volunteer workers to complete the soliciting forces, which will consist of more than 400 unpaid volunteer men and women.

The business district organization will be headed by Jules Markel, who will arrange for the solicitation of all places of business in the downtown district not handled by the establishment division, which is responsible for places of business having a larger number of employees.

Public employee units will be headed by the following chairmen, who will organize campaign groups in each public office or department:

City employees, Lloyd Banks; county and state employees, W. K. Hillyard; federal employees, Frank Harwood; school teachers and employees, Frank A. Henderson.

At the campaign council meeting Monday noon at the Green Cat cafe E. M. Sundquist, president of the Chest, expressed the appreciation of the board of directors for cooperation and assistance being given the campaign by the press and the radio.

"We want to get the story of the needs of the Community Chest charity and welfare organizations to every person who lives in Santa Ana or earns his income here," said E. M. Sundquist, Chest president. "We know that when these needs are understood each person will accept his share of responsibility according to his means."

Next Monday has been set as the date for completion of the organization. Some units of the campaign will begin work that week and the campaign will be officially launched at a kick-off dinner to be attended by every member of the campaign organization on the evening of Oct. 1 at a place to be decided upon within the next few days.

Building Code Argument Fades

Arguments over the uniform building code in Huntington Beach were temporarily at an end today.

Colts Terry, gasman who recently created considerable agitation among councilmen when he applied for a permit to erect a steel garage building containing 2500 square feet of floor space in fire district No. 1, solved the dilemma of councilmen yesterday when he cancelled plans for the steel structure and began work on a new stucco and frame garage.

Under the city building code it was impossible to build a steel garage structure containing more than 600 square feet or floor area in the first fire district. Councilmen, after much deliberation, had agreed to change the ordinance by amendment. Only a few days previously the city officials had changed the zone a block away to allow the construction of another business building.

furnishing entries were made by members of the clubs. In the clothing division, Orange county led every other county. Following are the awards received by Orange county members: In the potholder division, Margaret Griset of Tustin, first; Constance Swain, Buena Park, second; Helen Hill, Placentia, third; Marie Farnsworth, Santa Ana, fifth.

Dish towels: Lulu Anderson, Tustin, fourth; dish towels from flour sacks: Margaret Griset, Tustin, third; Marie Farnsworth, Santa Ana, fourth; Darning, Lulu Kelly, Anaheim, fifth. Cotton slips: Marie Farnsworth, Santa Ana, fifth. Sleeveless dresses: Helen Hill, Placentia, first; Margaret Griset, Tustin, second; Dolores Bircher, Anaheim, third. Shorts: Eleanor Case, Santa Ana, second; Yvonne Linnartz, Olive, fourth. Dresses with set-in sleeves: Yvonne Linnartz, Olive, fourth.

Aprons: Doris Adams, Anaheim, first; Nora Linnartz, Olive, second; Betty Runyon, Anaheim, third; Margaret Smith, Orange, fourth, and Henrietta Griset, Tustin, fifth; pajamas: Sophia Pelous, Buena Park, second; Jean Runyon, Anaheim, third; Rose Pous, Buena Park, fourth; Nora Linnartz, Olive, fifth; nightgowns: Betty Runyon, Anaheim, first.

Miss Frances Liles, in charge of this work, is generous in her praise of the girls' work and of the efforts of the adult leaders of the clubs in the county.

'LADIES' MAN' TITLE STICKS TO SUPERVISOR LYON

Heavy, heavy hung over Supervisor LeRoy Lyon's head today, and the answer to the riddle was "superfine."

Supervisor Lyon, unanimously awarded the title of "board's ladies' man" some months ago, on the occasion of his being the only one of the board to address a graduating class of nurses at the county hospital, still wears his title proudly.

In fact, he has a new insignia.

which he hung in desperation on the chandelier just over his head. It is a woman's chaste white glove, which had developed a habit of appearing each Tuesday festooned over Lyon's pen-holder, the back of his chair or under his blotter.

"At least," said Chairman John Mitchell today, when Lyon threw the glove at the chandelier, "it's better than finding it in your car, Roy!"

"Roy" said he had nothing to say.

SRA CLIENTS PASSION PLAY ARE HONEST ACTORS HERE

Either Orange county SRA clients are more honest, or the supervision is better.

Anyway, according to Terrence Halloran, county SRA administrator, there hasn't been the rush of resignations here that Ray L. Riley, state controller, reported in other sections of the state as the result of an audit of payrolls.

Riley was quoted today by the Associated Press as saying the "number drawing financial aid is 'down closer to where it belongs.' In the last two months, he said, there have been 11 convictions of persons taking but not entitled to aid."

Here, said Halloran, about 200 cases in each month in the normal course of events, with new clients added to the rolls and others leaving to take private or WPA jobs.

He said visitors from his office keep a constant check on the status of relief clients. In most cases the clients themselves notify SRA when they obtain employment, he reported.

There are cases, however, that give the superficial appearance of SRA pay to those with jobs, Halloran said. The administration extends food money until the worker gets his first pay check.

The recently instituted system of requiring Santa Ana clients to appear in person on the 2d and 15th of each month for checks has not developed any cases of fraud, he said.

"In a county like this, we know the people and don't have any difficulty locating them," said Halloran.

COUPE ABANDONED
A light coupe, registered to M. E. Green, Los Angeles, was being held for identification today by sheriff's officers. It was found abandoned on Los Alamitos boulevard yesterday, one wheel broken.

CATCHING COLD?

At the first warning sneeze—quick—a few drops up each nostril. Its timely use helps prevent many colds.

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

At the first warning sneeze—quick—a few drops up each nostril. Its timely use helps prevent many colds.

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

At the first warning sneeze—quick—a few drops up each nostril. Its timely use helps prevent many colds.

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

At the first warning sneeze—quick—a few drops up each nostril. Its timely use helps prevent many colds.

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

At the first warning sneeze—quick—a few drops up each nostril. Its timely use helps prevent many colds.

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

At the first warning sneeze—quick—a few drops up each nostril. Its timely use helps prevent many colds.

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

At the first warning sneeze—quick—a few drops up each nostril. Its timely use helps prevent many colds.

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

At the first warning sneeze—quick—a few drops up each nostril. Its timely use helps prevent many colds.

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

At the first warning sneeze—quick—a few drops up each nostril. Its timely use helps prevent many colds.

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

At the first warning sneeze—quick—a few drops up each nostril. Its timely use helps prevent many colds.

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

At the first warning sneeze—quick—a few drops up each nostril. Its timely use helps prevent many colds.

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

At the first warning sneeze—quick—a few drops up each nostril. Its timely use helps prevent many colds.

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

At the first warning sneeze—quick—a few drops up each nostril. Its timely use helps prevent many colds.

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

At the first warning sneeze—quick—a few drops up each nostril. Its timely use helps prevent many colds.

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

At the first warning sneeze—quick—a few drops up each nostril. Its timely use helps prevent many colds.

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

At the first warning sneeze—quick—a few drops up each nostril. Its timely use helps prevent many colds.

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

At the first warning sneeze—quick—a few drops up each nostril. Its timely use helps prevent many colds.

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

At the first warning sneeze—quick—a few drops up each nostril. Its timely use helps prevent many colds.

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

At the first warning sneeze—quick—a few drops up each nostril. Its timely use helps prevent many colds.

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

OIL MENACE ATTACKED

A condition at Westminster said by county officials to be extremely annoying, and by health officers to be distinctly dangerous, will be abated under threat of court action, District Attorney W. F. Menton said today.

The condition has arisen, Menton said, through the use of several lots there by the Ralph Grey Trucking company of Long Beach, for the dumping of oil and refinery waste containing a high proportion of sulphuric acid, which it is intended by the company to re-refine.

County Health Officer Dr. K. H. Sutherland said continued breathing of the fumes in time would result in a tendency toward bronchial pneumonia.

Menton said today that he had warned Grey to abate the nuisance, or that court steps to force such action would be taken.

Residents pointed out that during the past week a chicken hawk and a mud hen had lit on the waste pool, and were killed instantly by the fumes.

GREATEST STAGE SPECTACLE EVER OFFERED IN SANTA ANA

The Great European

PASSION PLAY

SPOKEN IN ENGLISH

A Wolff-Rothenberg Mammoth Production

with a Cast, Chorus and Ensemble of 300

SEE THE LAST SUPPER THE TRIAL BEFORE PILATE THE CRUCIFIXION RESURRECTION AND 16 OTHER SCENES

AUSPICES ELKS LODGE

ALL SEATS RESERVED

Evening: Students, 25c

Adults, 50c, 75c, $1

Tax Extra

On Sale at 104 E. 4th St.

Phone: 3844

NOW! Enjoy New Kitchen Freedom...at no extra cost!

(for limited time only)

WITH THE TAPPAN

DI-V-I-D-E-D COOKING TOP GAS RANGE WITH CLOCK CONTROL

Regular Price . . . $139<sup>50</sup>
For a limited time only $98<sup>55</sup> with your old range . . . $98<sup>55</sup>

YOU SAVE $40<sup>95</sup>

PAY ONLY $5<sup>00</sup> DOWN

THESE TAPPAN FEATURES MEAN GREATER CONVENIENCE, MORE ECONOMY, LEISURE!

PAY ONLY $5<sup>08</sup> Per Month for 21 months

This includes Turner's low carrying charges and sales tax. No finance company to deal with—

By All Means See The Tappan Before You Buy Any Range!

TURNER'S

221 West 4th Phone 1172

WEATHER

Fair tonight and Wednesday, morning clouds or fog near coast; high temperature in the interior, moderate west and northwest wind off coast.

TEMPERATURES Today
High, 80, degrees, at 11:30 a. m.; low, 64 degrees, at 2 p. m.

Yesterday
High, 84 degrees, at 2 p. m.; low, 61 degrees, at 4:30 a. m.

TIME TABLE
A.M. P.M. P.M.
Sept. 22..... 12:00 1:30 5:30
Sept. 23..... 1:30 1:40 10:10

SAN FRANCISCO BAY REGION—Fair and mild tonight and Wednesday; fog locally in early morning, gentle to moderate west wind.

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA—Fair tonight and Wednesday; fog on coast; high temperature in interior; gentle to moderate northwest wind off coast.

SIERRA NEVADA—Fair tonight and Wednesday; little change in temperature; gentle, changeable wind.

SACRAMENTO AND SAN JOAQUIN VALLEYS—Fair and continued warm tonight and Wednesday; changeable wind.

SANTA CLARA VALLEY—Fair weather and normal temperature tonight and Wednesday; northwest wind.

SALINAS VALLEY—Fair weather and normal temperature tonight and Wednesday; morning fog in lower valley; northwest wind.

TEMPERATURES ELSEWHERE
Temperatures taken at 8 a. m. today were given out by the U. S. Weather Bureau at Los Angeles as follows:

Boston..... 64 Minneapolis..... 66
Chicago..... 64 New York..... 66
Denver..... 64 Phoenix..... 68
El Paso..... 64 Pittsburgh..... 62
Helen..... 60 Salt Lake City..... 48
Kansas City..... 72 San Francisco..... 54
Los Angeles..... 80 Seattle..... 76
Tampa..... 70

Birth Notices
THILITHS—To Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thilith, 237 S. Artesia, a son, Sept. 20, a son.

Death Notices
MCDOWELL—Arvilla Mae McDowell, 50, died yesterday at her home in La Habra. She is survived by her husband, Charles McDowell. Announcement of funeral later by Brown and Wagner.

WINTERBOURNE—Rev. George Winterbourne, 53, died today at his home in El Modena. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Bertha Noble Pomona, and Mrs. Helen Beardsley, Santa Ana; and four sons, John Winterbourne, Santa Ana; Earl Winterbourne, Costa Mesa; George E. and Ernest M. Winterbourne, Denver, Colo. Funeral services will be held at the Rev. George Warner officiating, burial at Melrose, Elroy mausoleum.

DELISIED—Adela Delisied, 10 months, died today at her home in Stanton. She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anastasio Delisied, Stanton. Funeral services under direction of Winkler mortuary at home, Thursday, 9 a. m. Burial at Anaheim cemetery.

Intentions to Wed
James F. Mahoney, 24, Los Angeles; Helen E. Bakke, 24, Oakland.
Manning Allen, 21, Leon Belcher, 18, Los Angeles.
Theodore R. Bradley, 26, San Pedro; Helen Brungard, 22, Long Beach.
Donald Beattie, 22, Doris E. Beam, 18, Glendale.
Don M. Colvin, 22, Hazel Joyce Thomas, 20, Los Angeles.
Lennie DeVeres, 46, Hazel Schumaker, 26, Los Angeles.
Roy Hunt, 20, Hollywood; Pearl Ann Hendrix, 32, Beverly Hills.
Ira E. Hawkins, 27, Lydia G. Thompson, 20, Pasadena.
Walter Haller, 30, Marie W. Fechner, 23, Los Angeles.
Edward Helling, 42, Josephine Randall, 40, Long Beach.
Lester I. Lewis, 34, Leona V. Rickson, 24, Los Angeles.
James E. Moore, 25, Minneapolis; Thelma B. Meeks, 23, Los Angeles.
John R. McDowell, 29, Sally R. Lavin, 25, Los Angeles.
Albura Nelson, 29, Route 2, Box 100, Santa Ana; Laverne C. Tanner, 23, Vista.
Primo S. Rodriguez, 23, Morcy Reyes, 17, El Modena.
Hilthred L. Thomas, 28, Anna M. Brandenberger, 22, Santa Ana.
Rodolfo Torres, 22, Mary J. D. Gonzalez, 18, Los Angeles.
Leon F. Townsend, 27, Clarissa B. Gardner, 25, Los Angeles.
Robert E. Weber, 33, Clara M. Dorer, 30, Glendale.
Charles E. Lloyd, Jr., 21, Pasadena; Patricia M. Graham, 20, Montrose.
William C. Curtis, 62, Rose Morrow, 45, Escondido.
John H. MacLae, 27, Virginia F. LeFevre, 29, El Monte.

Marriage Licenses
Fred L. Rossi, 21, San Diego; Lorraine E. Sartwell, 20, Phoenix, Ariz.
Charles H. Smith, 39, 1240 W. Third, Santa Ana; Lillian E. Morris, 43, 917 West Highland, Santa Ana.
Louis Dillman, 26, Cleste Leonne Rush, 25, Los Angeles.
Lawrence L. Reno, 32, Lila Crisp, 34, Wilmington.
Clifford M. Braswell, 39, Margaret A. Wilson, 27, Los Angeles.
Gordon F. Dard, 31, Eleanor C. Sellwood, 16, Redondo Beach.
Herold B. Stockman, Jr., 21, Lorraine B. Gripe, 19, Arcadia.
Herman G. Bryant, 21, Inglewood; Estella C. Harrington, 18, Los Angeles.
Edmond C. Pondich, 21, Lila Catherine Crouch, 18, San Bernardino.
Joe C. Bechtold, 29, 909 West Central, Dunsmuir, Calif.; Tracey, 29, 1708 1/2 Ocean Front, Newport Beach.
Lee C. Wood, 50, Anna M. Adler, 43, Beverly Hills.
Eugene D. Darling, 45, San Antonio, Tex.; Zilpha E. Cox, 49, Vincennes, Ind.
James P. Bradford, 23, San Fernando; Hepler L. Turner, 23, 409 East Fifth, Santa Ana.
Harold G. Hobson, 34, Long Beach; Anna M. Ezell, 34, New Orleans.
James C. Brown, 27, Eva Mae Walters, 28, Los Angeles.
Floyd S. Payne, 32, Eunice J. Litch, 31, Los Angeles.
James R. McClure, 46, Magdalena M. Miller, 54, San Luis Obispo.
Henry Aguirre, Jr., 27, Lillita L. Chaplin, 28, Los Angeles.

DOG POISONED
Is a dog poisoner at work in Santa Ana?
Humane Officer H. D. Pickering was attempting to find an answer to this question today, following a report by Mrs. Robert J. Heffner, 1527 West Eighth street, that her black cocker spaniel had come home and died suddenly. Death was caused by strychnine poisoning, she said.

Beautiful Melrose Abbey
Provides a modern and reverent method of interment.
Very desirable crypts $135 to $395. Niches $20 to $100.
Complete information gladly given without obligation.
Liberal terms—phone Orange 131—101 Highway, between Santa Ana and Anaheim.

FOR FLOWERS
—THE—
Bouquet Shop
409 North Broadway, Ph. 1990

PUBLIC GIVEN WAR BLAME AT FORUM

Santa Ana Stages Its First Session of New Series

Responsibility for war was placed directly on the shoulders of the public last night by Lieut. Alden G. Alley, speaker at the first meeting of the Orange county federal forum in Santa Ana, held at the Willard school auditorium.

These specific war-makers were discussed by the speaker, under the general title "Who Are the War-Makers?"

Public Opinion Rules
These he classified as "the sensational newspaper which spreads false news and breeds racial hatred," the "wicked statesmen" who he aimed were often desirous to build for peace but found their hands tied by the passion and ignorance of the public, and the munition makers.

But in the final analysis, he said, none of these could be war-makers without the support of the public. He closed with the statement that "we haven't grown in our ability to face facts. Only by an intelligent public opinion can we hope for peace."

Critical of Peace
The munition makers, he said, are the only professional group that supported as a unit every measure to extend the army and navy. They also are critical, he said, of every effort to cement peace.

But he also pointed out that they are few in number, and make most of their gains through legislative lobbying. There, he said, lies the people's responsibility. "Every congressman," he said, "has his ear to the ground, and the public can defeat the lobbyist if we are on the job."

Lieutenant Alley will speak again next Monday on "Can America Live Alone?" Mrs. Golden Weston of the public education department announced.

JAIL PAIR FOR MAKING BEER
A Mexican laborer was held in the county jail on bootlegging charges today, and his wife was free on her own recognizance, as the result of a raid completed yesterday by police and board of equalization officers at 640 Emmett street.

Angel Echeverria, 35, laborer, and his wife, Refugio, 31, both pleaded not guilty when they were arraigned before Acting City Judge John Landell on charges of making beer without a license. They were to be tried this afternoon. Echeverria was held under $500 bail.

Under direction of H. E. MacKenzie of the state equalization board, officers confiscated 26 pint bottles and one quart bottle of beer, a 10-gallon crock, a bottle capper, and a syphon at Echeverria's home.

MERCY KILLERS WIN FREEDOM
LONDON. (AP)—Two brothers, who killed the imbecile brother they had nursed day and night for 20 years and who were given a "mercy" sentence, were released today from the Broadmoor institution for the criminally insane.

The sisters, Catherine Walsh, 40, and Mrs. Evelyn Constance Alexander, 36, were found insane last year. The verdict spared them from a prison term or death on the gallows. According to custom in such cases, they were sentenced "to be detained during the king's pleasure."

The sisters were charged with killing Sylvester Walsh "by administering pills and tablets." They admitted killing him, declaring they had done it to fulfill a promise to their mother and "for love of our brother."

Breakfasters to Initiate Score
Some 20 new members are eligible for initiation into the Breakfast club Thursday at 7:30 a. m., when the meeting is held at the Main cafeteria. Those who appear will be initiated with the "Spirit of Youth," Hunter Leach, Jesse Elliott, Tom Letto and Sherry Skirvin being in charge of the clinic.

President Ed Cochems assures the neophytes the initiation will be out of the ordinary, free from horse play. It will be ritualistic and instructive, sprinkled with humor, and those in charge of the ceremonies insist "a good time will be had by all."

The Journal's Swap Column
The Swap Column is a gratis service found only in The Journal. It is intended solely as a convenience for exchanging articles. It is not designated as a sales medium and no dealers will be permitted to use it. No automobile or real estate swap offers will be published. Bring your swap offers to The Journal, 117 East Fifth street, or telephone 3600.

1523 West Tenth street, will swap milk goats for trailer.

Townsend News, Views

By WALTER R. ROBB

(This is a non-political, non-partisan column, dealing in Townsend news and views, and written by a prominent Townsend leader. Any opinions which are expressed herein are not necessarily those of The Journal.)

Harry R. Sheppard, Democratic nominee for congress from this district, was in a happy frame of mind last evening when he appeared before a joint meeting of clubs Nos. 8 and 10, arranged in his honor. The Free Methodist church where the 225 or more Townsendites gathered, filling the small auditorium, vibrated from the hearty applause given the speaker during his address.

Mr. Sheppard told of the harmonious conditions existing among the Townsendites of the Finckle district, and seemed convinced that the Townsend strength was solidly back of his candidacy. Mrs. Sheppard accompanied the candidate to his speaking engagement and was present to the audience. Mrs. F. Freeman of the Los Angeles headquarters for the Townsend movement was present to hear Mr. Sheppard, coming to Santa Ana for that purpose.

Townsend hall at 509 West Fourth street was the scene of another enthusiastic Townsend gathering held at the same hour. Rev. T. W. Ringland, United Brethren pastor of Whittier and formerly of the Santa Ana church, was the speaker. This meeting was sponsored by club No. 2 of which Rev. Ringland was one of its charter members. While he was pastor of the local United Brethren church the club was organized and was invited shortly after by Rev. Ringland to use its community room as a meeting place. Later when Townsend headquarters were established in Townsend hall the club moved to the hall which it since has used as its meeting place. By this time, the Rev. Ringland had been transferred from the charge here to the Whittier church, much to the regret of the local church and also the Townsendites of the city.

The reverend gentleman began his address before the large audience present to greet him by giving emphasis to the need of retaining the constitution in its original form of government. Half turning and pointing to the American flag he shouted, "This flag has been handed down to us at terrific cost and it is up to us to see that it shall not touch the ground."

Speaking of some who had criticized his interest in the Townsend movement he said, "I do not want to put politics into religion but I do want to put some religion into politics." Then with evident deep concern for national welfare he expressed the fear that "God only knows what is ahead for America if we don't wake up."

Lamenting the demoralizing effect on the younger generation, he ascribed the increase in juvenile delinquency and increase of crime enacted by the young men to the failure of government to take action as being the cause of it. Lack of opportunity for employment, he said, had driven many young people into crime. "The crime evil is existent because of conditions, which will be changed when the Townsend plan becomes the law of the land."

Still enforcing the thought of the needs of youth, he pictured the benefits of the Townsend plan as being extended to all aged citizens, including the youth of today. He said, "A lot of young people are not able in their frenzy of youth to grasp the significance of this plan, but it will benefit every one of our people from the oldest to the children yet unborn."

Climaxing his speech in a burst of patriotic appeal to the Townsendites to keep on with their task of saving America, he pictured to the audience the scene of General Washington, kneeling in prayer in the snows of Valley Forge, as he prayed to the God of the high heavens to save this country to its people. The speaker shouted, "What this country needs is a baptism of that kind of patriotism."

Rev. Ringland is especially gifted with an ability to vividly portray things humorous and dynamically impress things serious. He moved his hearers of the evening to convulsions of laughter because of his humorous sketches and a moment later to the verge of tears because of the seriousness of his portrayals.

PLAYWRIGHT DIES
SANTA BARBARA. (AP)—Edward Salisbury Field, 56, playwright whose comedy successes included "Twin Beds" and "Up in Mabel's Room," died Sunday at his Santa Lake retreat above Santa Ynez valley, friends learned today.

Fifty-one thousand dollars were paid for the only extant signature of Button Gwinnett.

BANKS TELLS WHY TAXES INCREASE

Out of a tax rate of $4.35 per $100 assessed valuation effective on Santa Ana property this year, the city council has direct or indirect control over $1.14 and spends only 51 cents for general city government, according to a report of City Auditor Lloyd H. Banks to the city council last night.

Banks showed that the person with property assessed at $1500 pays $65.25 in taxes this year as compared with $64.20 last year, an increase of $1.05. At the same time he pays the city 75 cents less.

The same man pays $5.55 for Metropolitan water district as compared with $3 last year, a gain of $2.55. He also pays 60 cents more for schools, or a total of $26.10.

In a breakdown of the city rate of $1.50, Banks showed the following rates: general government, 51 cents; streets, 20 cents; sewer, 1 cent; fire, 26 cents; a total of 98 cents for operating funds. State law allows $1.25 for operating funds in cities of the fifth class.

Special funds carry the following rates: parks, 3 cents; library, 10 1/2 cents; joint outfall sewer maintenance, 2 1/2 cents. For interest and sinking funds there is a rate of 26 cents, and for 1915 act bond reserves, 10 cents. The latter two are fixed charges.

QUEEN CONTEST IS ANNOUNCED
A queen contest will get under way Tuesday as a feature of the forthcoming fun festival and style show sponsored by the Orange County Home Owned Business Association. The committee in charge is making 25 attractive Santa Ana and Orange county girls to enter the contest.

Each girl entering the contest will receive a cash award, it was announced. The winner will receive a diamond ring, which will be on display at the Lorenz jewelry store here, the management said.

Every girl entered in the contest will appear at the Ebell theater preceding the style show and the Fanchon and Marco vaudeville review. The winner will be crowned queen immediately following the style show, and all the girls will form a court of honor.

Any woman with a particular talent will be given an opportunity for an audition by Fanchon and Marco. Further information can be secured at 208 Walter L. Moore building.

Democrats Will Hear Sen. McAdoo
Horace Head, county manager for the Democratic presidential campaign, announced today that Sen. W. G. McAdoo will open the Southern California Roosevelt-Garner drive at the Shrine auditorium in Los Angeles next Monday at 8 p. m.

A fleet of Orange county cars will go to Los Angeles for the event. Last night about 100 precinct workers met at the Democratic headquarters in Orange, where they heard talks by Harry Sheppard and Harry Westover.

POLICE REPORTS
The following information was taken from today's reports on file at the Santa Ana police department:

Pete Brady, 45, Los Angeles salesman, was returned here by Santa Ana officers yesterday following his arrest in Los Angeles on a warrant from city court. He was sentenced to five days in jail on a drunk charge.

While city councilmen crowded windows and grasped telephones last night, firemen extinguished a small fire at the Dietler paint shop, Fifth street and Broadway, begun in a pile of oil-soaked rags.

Attempted burglary of a service station at 101 highway and Santa Ana boulevard Sunday night was reported by W. W. Craney. He told officers the intruders broke a lock off a steel door by using a heavy bar, but fled before entering the station.

Mayor Fred Rowland, keeping his eye out for things in general, dropped into the police station last night to report that a pedestrian sign at the Roosevelt school, 318 East First street, had been left out, although school was not in session.

Sympathetic Twins Puzzle Doctors in England
PATRICROFT, Eng. (AP)—Sympathetic twins—who suffer identical pains when only one of them is ill or injured—were under observation by British physicians today.

They are William and Thomas Stockie, 5 years old. Thomas is now in the Royal Manchester hospital where doctors are working to save his left eye, which was injured while playing.

Shortly after the accident—for no reason the doctors have been unable to discover—William's left eye began to swell.

"It got all inflamed and watery," said his mother. "We had to have it bandaged and put him to bed." The mother told physicians the same thing has happened many times since the twins were born.

"When anything goes wrong with one of them, it always happens to the other, too," she asserted.

"A short time ago one of them was in the house and he complained of an earache. A few minutes later the other twin, who had been outdoors playing and had not seen or spoken to his brother for hours, came in to complain of earache."

"We know they don't plot them, because on several occasions they have not been near each other all day. It was just the same when they were too young to plot anything."

COLE BROTHERS CIRCUS TO SHOW HERE ON OCT. 5

The world's newest big show, the Cole Bros.-Clyde Beatty Circus which returned from a five-year European tour last year, will exhibit in Santa Ana, Monday, Oct. 5, on the South Main street grounds.

The No. 1 advertising car, the first of three in advance of the circus, is now here. Billposters, bannermen, lithographers, radio men and press agents are heralding the great event, and soon everyone will be planning for a gala visit to the world's largest "big top," the center of the biggest canvas city ever assembled to thrill, entertain and amuse a great and discriminating populace.

Traveling on three trains of double-length steel railroad cars, the giant of super-circuses will bring 1050 people, 312 menagerie animals, 30 elephants and 500 horses.

The pre-eminent feature is Clyde Beatty's trained wild animal exhibition. Beatty is acknowledged to be the greatest wild animal trainer of all time.

There are 400 performers including the famous Zavatta family of riders; the Imperial Harolds, aerialists; the Flying Thrillers; Harold Barnes, dancing, tumbling, somersaulting acrobat of the tight wire; and 60 internationally celebrated and beloved clowns. The Cole Bros.-Clyde Beatty horse fair has become a feature amazing in its appeal throughout the North American continent.

The holiday will be ushered in with an immense street parade at 11 a. m. Upwards of 500 horses, three score of elaborately carved and gilded allegorical floats and tableau wagons together with many cages and open dens of Clyde Beatty's animals will be seen in the procession. There will be 30 elephants and two caravans of camels. Five bands and two steam calliopes will furnish music. Doors to the menagerie open at 1 and 7 p. m. The big show will start at 2 and 8 p. m.

FBI Wants Fingerprints of Everybody in U. S.
KANSAS CITY. (AP)—L. C. Schilder, fingerprint chief of the federal bureau of investigation, would like to see every man, woman and child in the nation fingerprinted.

Here for the annual convention of the International Association of Chiefs of Police, which opened Monday, Schilder explained his motive:

"We receive an average of 6000 fingerprints a year from police departments of persons they have been unable to identify."

"For example, we were sent the prints of 200 persons killed in a Florida hurricane last year. We could identify only five. Those five had been lucky enough to have been arrested."

The other 195 remained unknown as far as the federal bureau of investigation was concerned. They were "unlucky" enough not to have been arrested.

"Amnesia victims, persons injured in accidents and not carrying identification papers, scores of people killed in disasters, all could be identified quickly and positively if the bureau had their prints," Schilder said.

JAPAN MARINES GO TO CHINA
TOKYO. (AP)—Detachments of Japanese marines, specially trained as landing parties, sailed today for China to protect Japanese residents and interests against demonstrations by hostile Chinese.

Emperor Hirohito and Foreign Minister Machiro Arita conferred together at the imperial palace on alleged "anti-Japanese terrorism" which yesterday resulted in official orders for the expedition to China.

Officials and the Japanese press guarded carefully the name of the port from which the marines embarked. It was understood, however, the detachments left from Sasebo on Kyushu island, 24 hours sailing from Shanghai.

Deny Dismissal of 9 'Legion' Cases
DETROIT. (AP)—Circuit Judge Joseph A. Noyahon today denied defense motions to dismiss nine of the 12 alleged Black Legion members on trial on charges of kidnapping and murdering Charles A. Poole.

"There is sufficient evidence for this case to go to the jury on a question of fact," the court ruled.

Bernard W. Cruise, a defense counsel, asserted in his opening statement to the jury that the only person guilty of the killing was Dayton Dean, who has pleaded guilty to a murder charge, and is awaiting sentence. He was a state witness.

DR. CROAL DENTIST
Phone 2885 For Appointment
New Location: 410 1/2 North Main

"Bob and I Compared Them All ...and found TAPPAN by far the BEST BUY!"

TOWNSEND CLUBS HEAR SHEPPARD
Harry R. Sheppard, Democratic candidate for congress, addressed more than 300 members of Townsend clubs No. 8 and 10 at the First Free Methodist church, 702 Minter street, last night.

J. A. Holmberg acted as master of ceremonies. Both Dr. I. W. Bouldin, president of club No. 10, and W. J. Pickering, president of club No. 8, presided at their regular business meetings.

The Port of Missing Men
The following names of missing persons are furnished The Journal through the courtesy of the bureau of identification at the sheriff's office.

Runo Seifert, please get in touch with the nearest police station or sheriff's office at once. Your absence from Sacramento since Sept. 3 has caused much worry among your relatives.

Leigh Ahlstrom and Lester Linges, please get in touch with your families in Placerville immediately. They have reported your absence.

Richard Schnell, Escondido police have reported you missing. Please contact your family there at once.

Katie Govorko, please return to your home in Cupertino. Your parents are grief-stricken over your absence.

Lloyd Collins, your family in Ventura is very much grieved over your mysterious disappearance. Please call at the nearest sheriff's office, and arrangements will be made for your return.

BE SURE YOUR NEW GAS RANGE Has These EXTRA CONVENIENCES!

Insulated low temperature oven
Non-clog gas saving top burners
Automatic burners; no matches needed

Robertshaw oven heat control
Drawer type smokeless broiler
Warning, storage cabinets

By All Means See The TAPPAN Before You Buy Any Range

RUSSELL PLUMBING CO.
PHONE 523
Plenty of Parking Space
921 S. MAIN

LANDON HITS AT POLITICS IN RELIEF

ABOARD LONDON TRAIN IN MISSOURI, EN ROUTE TO DES MOINES. (AP)—Gov. Alf M. Landon told Missouri crowds today that the nation's voters "demand that the political exploiters who are attempting to buy political support by swapping relief for votes shall themselves be removed from the public payroll."

The Republican candidate for President traveled across north-eastern Missouri on his way to Des Moines for a major farm address tonight.

"Our people . . .," he said, "want the needy unemployed among our citizens to have the helping hand of government extended to them until they can get real work again at the best of good wages. But they want the administration of relief to be made honest and effective. They want it purged of waste, incompetence and absurdity, and they demand that the political exploiters who are attempting to buy political support by swapping relief for votes shall themselves be removed from the public payroll."

And if I know the American people, that's one of the things they are going to attend to next November."

Landon's train stopped for more than 25 minutes at Kansas City. He halted again at nearby Excelsior Springs, Mo., for a back platform appearance and scheduled two other stops in Missouri at Trenton and Princeton.

FARM BUREAU HEAD URGES NEW GROUP
HYDE PARK. (AP)—Creation of a farm council composed of federal, state, county and farmer representatives to coordinate various activities of agricultural relief was proposed to President Roosevelt today by Edward A. O'Neal, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation. He said Mr. Roosevelt favored the idea.

O'Neal said he went over the plan at the summer White House only in a "general" way.

O'Neal added several farm activities, such as soil conservation, farm credits, and rural roads, could be co-ordinated to "make for economy and efficiency in carrying out these broad programs."

CROP INSURANCE COMMITTEE MEETS
WASHINGTON. (AP)—Administration leaders selected by President Roosevelt to formulate a federal crop insurance plan for suggestions to congress were called into session today by Secretary Wallace, chairman of the group.

The "first thing to do," Wallace told a press conference, will be to determine reserves necessary for insurance—or the maximum reserve stock of wheat, cotton or corn needed to meet the country's demands from year to year.

After that, the secretary said, "some form of production control" would have to be considered.

DR. CROAL DENTIST
Phone 2885 For Appointment
New Location: 410 1/2 North Main

Deny Dismissal of 9 'Legion' Cases
DETROIT. (AP)—Circuit Judge Joseph A. Noyahon today denied defense motions to dismiss nine of the 12 alleged Black Legion members on trial on charges of kidnapping and murdering Charles A. Poole.

"There is sufficient evidence for this case to go to the jury on a question of fact," the court ruled.

Bernard W. Cruise, a defense counsel, asserted in his opening statement to the jury that the only person guilty of the killing was Dayton Dean, who has pleaded guilty to a murder charge, and is awaiting sentence. He was a state witness.

DR. CROAL DENTIST
Phone 2885 For Appointment
New Location: 410 1/2 North Main

"Bob and I Compared Them All ...and found TAPPAN by far the BEST BUY!"

TOWNSEND CLUBS HEAR SHEPPARD
Harry R. Sheppard, Democratic candidate for congress, addressed more than 300 members of Townsend clubs No. 8 and 10 at the First Free Methodist church, 702 Minter street, last night.

J. A. Holmberg acted as master of ceremonies. Both Dr. I. W. Bouldin, president of club No. 10, and W. J. Pickering, president of club No. 8, presided at their regular business meetings.

The Port of Missing Men
The following names of missing persons are furnished The Journal through the courtesy of the bureau of identification at the sheriff's office.

Runo Seifert, please get in touch with the nearest police station or sheriff's office at once. Your absence from Sacramento since Sept. 3 has caused much worry among your relatives.

Leigh Ahlstrom and Lester Linges, please get in touch with your families in Placerville immediately. They have reported your absence.

Richard Schnell, Escondido police have reported you missing. Please contact your family there at once.

Katie Govorko, please return to your home in Cupertino. Your parents are grief-stricken over your absence.

Lloyd Collins, your family in Ventura is very much grieved over your mysterious disappearance. Please call at the nearest sheriff's office, and arrangements will be made for your return.

BE SURE YOUR NEW GAS RANGE Has These EXTRA CONVENIENCES!

Insulated low temperature oven
Non-clog gas saving top burners
Automatic burners; no matches needed

Robertshaw oven heat control
Drawer type smokeless broiler
Warning, storage cabinets

By All Means See The TAPPAN Before You Buy Any Range

RUSSELL PLUMBING CO.
PHONE 523

Brick Dust

Here and There With The Journal's
Rambling County Editor

By L. N. (BRICK) GAINES

WOMEN! I promised something about 'em yesterday, after a subscriber had suggested that a few lines be devoted to female readers once in a while. It was easy to say "Sure, we'll have lots of stories about 'em." But it's harder to do the writing.

Finally I gave up and called Mrs. Anne Van Steenberg, Midway City correspondent. She had an idea, right away. And here it is:

"Why not write about our women postmasters?" she suggested. And then she saved my life by mentioning several right at home. For instance, there are the Two Myrtles—Myrtle Robertson at Midway City and Myrtle Knous at Westminster. Both good postmasters. At Westminster, Myrtle Knous has had her office raised to third class since her appointment, and the Midway City office should also show a like increase soon.

And then, Mrs. Van Steenberg pointed out, there is Mary Jane Davis at Stanton, the youngest postmaster in the county—23 years of age. She was appointed to fill the position upon death of her grandfather, S. A. Rutledge. "An awfully good-looking, snappy kid," she adds.

Investigation reveals that we have 16 woman postmasters in the county. At Orange, Vera Wetlin, San Clemente, Bernice Marie Ayer, San Juan Capistrano, Marie E. Foster—or was someone else appointed there recently? Stop me if I'm wrong! Silverado, Elsie McClelland; Sunset Beach, Esther F. Ivey; Yorba Linda, Mrs. Ollie Beard; Balboa Island, Mary Evelyn Rider; Corona Del Mar, Wanda Nimmo; Dana Point, Laura Russell; Glorietta, Olive Johnstone; Irvine, Mrs. Lillian Munger; Laguna Beach, Ada E. Purpus, and La Habra, Bertha Hilbert.

And of course there are The Two Myrtles and Mary Jane Davis!

Passing up any number of possible puns, we'll just remark that the majority of postoffices seem to be occupied by women. And they're all doing good jobs and should be congratulated!

My correspondent also hints something about retired school teachers. Mainly, about Ida M. Hosack, who has retired after more than a half century—51 years—of teaching. Forty-five of 'em in Tokpa, Kan.

She taught every grade, from the first to high school, during those years. As pupils, she taught children of Dr. Charles M. Sheldon, author of "In His Steps." She taught the son of John D. M. Hamilton, London manager. Children of Margaret McCarter Hill, writer, and many other famous folks who hail from Kansas.

"Little, frail, still full of life and energy, she is interested with her brothers, Thomas and Merton Hosack, in home-manufactured fruit and tomato juices, and has charge of a retail shop in Oceanview. A really delightful woman, who declines to retire from an active life. She is still teaching—the philosophy of living, instead of learning."

It's hard to think of any tribute for such a teacher, but I imagine she has a lot of wonderful memories!

Now we'll open our natural history class for a brief discussion about snakes.

Chet Congdon, San Juan Capistrano, is responsible for this. He claims that Bill Henning, who works in the bank there, went to San Clemente the other morning, and arrived just in time to answer shrieks of distress sent up by Miss Evelyn Nelson, stonographer for the Capital company.

Miss Nelson was about to enter her car when she discovered a rattlesnake coiled in the seat! So Henning got a glass bowl, and somehow managed to convince the reptile that living in a glass house wouldn't be so bad. He clamped down the lid, and now the snake's on exhibition at the bank.

And Miss Nelson no doubt feels better.

That Stan Wilson, over in Orange! He slays me! Here's what he said the other day, in his column. Imagined conversation between a druggist and his customer:

Customer—"Give me some of that prepared monoacetic acid ester of salicylic acid."

Druggist—"Do you mean aspirin?"

Customer—"Yes, I can never think of that name!"

Farm Center Meetings

WEDNESDAY

Buena Park home department, 10 a. m., in kitchen of Community Congregational church. Members from Cypress-Magnolia district also invited; subject, "Uses of Honey in Cookery." Pot-luck luncheon to follow demonstration. Mrs. Lester Schofield, chairman.

SINGLE TANGO PARLOR MEASURE TO BE ON H. B. BALLOT

BOARD DROPS PLAN FOR SECOND

Initiative Ordinance Will Call for 'Skill Game' Vote Nov. 3

HUNTINGTON BEACH.—City officials reconsidered a proposed second tango ordinance last night, and only one proposition to license the so-called "skill game" will be on the ballot when voters go to the polls Nov. 3.

Councilmen ordered a special ordinance, asked by an initiative petition, to be placed on the Nov. 3 ballot. City Attorney Ray Overacker will appear before the Orange county board of supervisors today to ask permission to include the special issue on the general ballot.

Ordinance Told
The initiative ordinance, presented with a petition bearing 415 signatures, provides that a license fee of $5 per chair with a minimum of $500 be paid for each "skill game" and that games in the city be limited to two of each type. Permits may be granted only to persons who have lived in the city for five years or more. The initiative petition asked the council either adopt the ordinance or present it at a special election.

Last Friday night city officials discussed the proposed measure, voiced disapproval of the ordinance and suggested a new one. City Attorney Overacker was instructed to draw the new ordinance along lines which provided a license fee of $25 per chair with a minimum of $2500 for the games, the residence requirement was cut from five to three years in the city and no limit was placed on the number of games which might be operated. Overacker presented the ordinance last night, but officials changed their minds and decided to drop the matter.

Plan WPA Project
City Engineer Harry Overmyer will complete plans for the repair of more than 10,000 square feet of sidewalks in the city and present the plans to Orange county WPA headquarters with a request for aid. Councilmen ordered the matter to proceed after Overmyer reported the WPA had promised to pay the labor costs and half of the material costs at a preliminary conference. Material will cost $561 with the labor totaling nearly $1000 more, he said.

Expenditure of $500 on the Huntington Beach golf course will be given further consideration. Councilmen plan a meeting with George Lake, club manager, in the near future.

Councilmen also discussed a proposal to license marble games at the meeting, but postponed action.

CACTUS GROWER GETS HONOR

HUNTINGTON BEACH.—J. Sherman, local cactus grower and statistician for the Huntington Beach company, held the job of secretary of the Cactus and Succulent Society of America, a national organization today, because of his hobby of growing cacti and succulents and his interest in statistics. Denny was elected to the position at the annual meeting of members of the organization at Los Angeles Sunday at the home of W. Taylor Marshall, noted botanist and world explorer.

The office is one of several important ones held by the local man. He also is vice president of the International Euphorbia society, a member of several important committees of the Long Beach Cactus and Succulent clubs and is publisher chairman and a director of the Huntington Beach Garden club. Howard Gates of Anaheim, another well-known Southern California authority, was re-elected president of the national organization at the Los Angeles meeting. The group is the largest of its kind in the world. Other officers elected included Clarence Clum of Los Angeles, vice president, and Dr. R. W. Poindexter of Long Beach, treasurer.

Plans call for La Habra to furnish $4043 of the cost and for WPA to furnish $11,078.

BUILD LIBRARY AT LA HABRA

Work has started on the $14,000 La Habra library building project, WPA headquarters here reported today.

Ten men commenced work yesterday on preliminary work preparatory to laying foundations. Later the project will use about 20 men over a period of four months.

Plans call for La Habra to furnish $4043 of the cost and for WPA to furnish $11,078.

EDUCATION IS UNIT'S TOPIC

HUNTINGTON BEACH.—Mrs. Marjorie Peabody, junior past president of the 21st district, American Legion, will be speaker at a meeting of the Huntington Beach Joseph Rodman unit of the Legion auxiliary, Kathryn Allen, publicity chairman, announced today.

Mrs. Peabody, who is education chairman for the district this year, will take education for her topic. Mrs. Peggie Sargent, education chairman for the local unit, pointed out today that the increasing death rate of war veterans, which leaves many children of school age to be assisted.

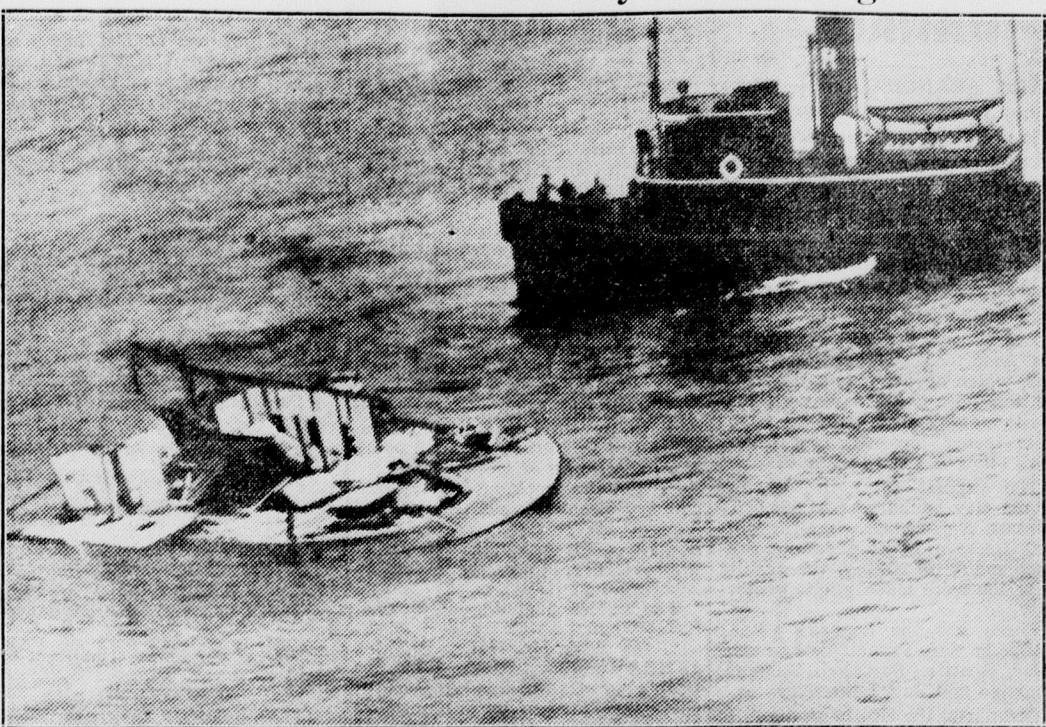

The auxiliary's program for assistance of these children will be explained at the meeting, and the general public has been invited to attend. Alice McBeath will be in charge of refreshments.

Farm Center Meetings

WEDNESDAY

Buena Park home department, 10 a. m., in kitchen of Community Congregational church. Members from Cypress-Magnolia district also invited; subject, "Uses of Honey in Cookery." Pot-luck luncheon to follow demonstration. Mrs. Lester Schofield, chairman.

Excursion Boat Sunk By Liner in Fog

Virtually the only part of the excursion steamer Romance afloat after her collision with the S. S. New York at the entrance of Boston harbor was part of topsides. The crew of 53 and 159 passengers were rescued. (Associated Press telephoto photo.)

BEACH ROTARY TALK SLATED

LAGUNA BEACH.—Featured on the program arranged for Friday's luncheon meeting of the Laguna Beach Rotary club at the White House cafe is Dr. Charles Keyser Edmunds, president of Pomona college. It was announced today at the superintendent's office.

Paul Colburn, vice-principal of the high school, will be in charge of the night school. Included among the faculty selected is Joseph Frenette, well known local attorney, who will give instruction in government. It is expected that residents seeking naturalization will attend this class of the night school.

WOMAN'S CLUB OPENS YEAR

ORANGE.—After a vacation of almost three months, Orange Woman's club members resumed meetings Monday afternoon, with the new president, Mrs. Walter Kogler, presiding. The enrollment this year is about 250.

"Les Pompadours," well known entertainers of Hollywood Athletic club, Lake Arrowhead and Palm Springs, entertained, Misses Eretta Douglas, Bernice Neale and Virginia Fluke, compose the musical trio of violinist, cellist and pianist. Mrs. E. H. Smith, program chairman, introduced the musicians.

Following the program, tea was served in the lobby by the hospitality committee, composed of Mesdames J. T. McInnis, Leon Des Larzes, N. T. Edwards, Paul Muech, Marion Flippen, Fred Leitz, A. W. Fullerton, B. J. Fletcher and Miss Sue Scarritt.

Year books, with covers of purple and silver morocco, were distributed. The books contain names of officers, board of directors, standing committees, information concerning county and district meetings, and names and addresses of members. Editors of the 1936-37 book were Mrs. E. H. Smith, Mrs. B. D. Stanley, Mrs. George E. Peterson, Mrs. O. Kemper Anderson and Mrs. Chester Stearns.

Memorial Held For H. E. Erwin

ORANGE.—A memorial service for Harley Edward Erwin, who died near The Dalles, Ore., was held at the Shannon funeral home at 10 o'clock this morning. Services were in charge of the Rev. Arthur T. Hobson, pastor of the First Methodist church. Interment was scheduled for Monday afternoon, at Fairhaven cemetery.

Mr. Erwin leaves his wife, Mrs. Alice Erwin, Santa Ana; two daughters, Dorris Erwin, Santa Ana, and Mrs. Ernest Black, Orange; two sons, Walter and Jimmie Erwin; his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. William Erwin, Tustin; three sisters, Mrs. Fred Scwenderman, Tustin; Mrs. Edward Bertman, Orange, and Miss Mildred Erwin, Hollywood.

Grange to Meet In Anaheim

MIDWAY CITY.—Postponing the October meeting because of a state session, members of the Pomona Grange of Orange county will meet in the Anaheim Concordia club Nov. 2, officials of the group decided at a recent meeting here. Election of officers will feature the meeting, it was announced.

The last session was featured by adoption of a resolution supporting Future Farmer and 4-H club work in the county, as well as preparation of resolutions to be presented at the state Grange meeting at Eureka Oct. 20.

RANCHER GOOD DETECTIVE

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO.—Some clever detective work on the part of S. R. Cook, walnut grower of McKinley avenue, landed two Capistrano youths behind the bars of the county jail for theft of three sacks of walnuts from the Cook ranch last Friday night.

Following tracks and other tell-tale clues left by the boys while making away with the nuts, Cook finally traced one of them down, the lad confessing his part and implicating the other.

In justice court here one was sentenced to 60 days in jail and the other sent to the detention home in Santa Ana. Several other younger boys, said to be connected with the "gang," will be rounded up by the officers and told to mend their ways.

Plan Laguna Adult Classes

LAGUNA BEACH.—Covering a variety of subjects is the program now being worked out for the adult education classes, which will open at the high school on the evening of Sept. 29, it was announced today at the superintendent's office.

Paul Colburn, vice-principal of the high school, will be in charge of the night school. Included among the faculty selected is Joseph Frenette, well known local attorney, who will give instruction in government. It is expected that residents seeking naturalization will attend this class of the night school.

RITES SET FOR COUNTY PAIR

LAGUNA BEACH.—Wedding bells will ring next Thursday afternoon at St. Mary's Episcopal church when Miss Margaret Plummer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Plummer, Fullerton, will become the bride of Kenneth Darraq of Placentia. The rites, scheduled for 4 o'clock, will be performed by the Rev. Robert M. Hogarth, vicar of the parish. Following the ceremony, there will be a reception at Hotel Laguna.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of the principal of Fullerton Union High school. She will be attended at the ceremony by her sister, Mrs. Isabel Palmer, Pacific Palisades, while Wolf De Gonia, Huntington Park, will act as best man. Following the ceremony and the reception at the hotel, the couple will leave on a brief honeymoon trip and then make their home in Lodi.

ORANGE.—After a vacation of almost three months, Orange Woman's club members resumed meetings Monday afternoon, with the new president, Mrs. Walter Kogler, presiding. The enrollment this year is about 250.

"Les Pompadours," well known entertainers of Hollywood Athletic club, Lake Arrowhead and Palm Springs, entertained, Misses Eretta Douglas, Bernice Neale and Virginia Fluke, compose the musical trio of violinist, cellist and pianist. Mrs. E. H. Smith, program chairman, introduced the musicians.

Following the program, tea was served in the lobby by the hospitality committee, composed of Mesdames J. T. McInnis, Leon Des Larzes, N. T. Edwards, Paul Muech, Marion Flippen, Fred Leitz, A. W. Fullerton, B. J. Fletcher and Miss Sue Scarritt.

Year books, with covers of purple and silver morocco, were distributed. The books contain names of officers, board of directors, standing committees, information concerning county and district meetings, and names and addresses of members. Editors of the 1936-37 book were Mrs. E. H. Smith, Mrs. B. D. Stanley, Mrs. George E. Peterson, Mrs. O. Kemper Anderson and Mrs. Chester Stearns.

Mr. Erwin leaves his wife, Mrs. Alice Erwin, Santa Ana; two daughters, Dorris Erwin, Santa Ana, and Mrs. Ernest Black, Orange; two sons, Walter and Jimmie Erwin; his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. William Erwin, Tustin; three sisters, Mrs. Fred Scwenderman, Tustin; Mrs. Edward Bertman, Orange, and Miss Mildred Erwin, Hollywood.

ORANGE.—A memorial service for Harley Edward Erwin, who died near The Dalles, Ore., was held at the Shannon funeral home at 10 o'clock this morning. Services were in charge of the Rev. Arthur T. Hobson, pastor of the First Methodist church. Interment was scheduled for Monday afternoon, at Fairhaven cemetery.

Mr. Erwin leaves his wife, Mrs. Alice Erwin, Santa Ana; two daughters, Dorris Erwin, Santa Ana, and Mrs. Ernest Black, Orange; two sons, Walter and Jimmie Erwin; his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. William Erwin, Tustin; three sisters, Mrs. Fred Scwenderman, Tustin; Mrs. Edward Bertman, Orange, and Miss Mildred Erwin, Hollywood.

Grange to Meet In Anaheim

MIDWAY CITY.—Postponing the October meeting because of a state session, members of the Pomona Grange of Orange county will meet in the Anaheim Concordia club Nov. 2, officials of the group decided at a recent meeting here. Election of officers will feature the meeting, it was announced.

The last session was featured by adoption of a resolution supporting Future Farmer and 4-H club work in the county, as well as preparation of resolutions to be presented at the state Grange meeting at Eureka Oct. 20.

RANCHER GOOD DETECTIVE

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO.—Some clever detective work on the part of S. R. Cook, walnut grower of McKinley avenue, landed two Capistrano youths behind the bars of the county jail for theft of three sacks of walnuts from the Cook ranch last Friday night.

Following tracks and other tell-tale clues left by the boys while making away with the nuts, Cook finally traced one of them down, the lad confessing his part and implicating the other.

In justice court here one was sentenced to 60 days in jail and the other sent to the detention home in Santa Ana. Several other younger boys, said to be connected with the "gang," will be rounded up by the officers and told to mend their ways.

ATHLETES TO BE HONORED AT BEACH

HUNTINGTON BEACH.—Final plans were made here today for feting two well known Southern California athletes, Mrs. Anne O'Brien, Huntington Beach Olympic team member and Al Reboin, former Santa Ana star athlete and new coach at the Huntington Beach Union High school. Civic leaders will pay homage to the pair at a banquet at the Memorial hall Saturday night. Members of the Windsor club, the Huntington Beach Chamber of Commerce and the Huntington Beach Anne O'Brien club are in charge.

Mrs. O'Brien, who practiced on the Huntington Beach High school track for weeks to make the United States women's Olympic team, took part in the hurdle racing events at Berlin. She will tell of her experiences and impressions at the 1936 games.

Reboin, who was added to the teaching staff of the Huntington Beach High school this year, and other teachers along the lettermen of the high school, will be honored at the meeting. Reboin will give a brief talk. W. H. Hart is chairman of the general committee in charge. He is being assisted by Paul Bowen and Dante Siracusa.

To Move Laguna Pottery Classes

LAGUNA BEACH.—Permission for the WPA pottery classes, conducted here for some time past, to use the Pomona College Marine Laboratory building on Coast boulevard, was obtained today from Dr. C. K. Edmunds, president of the Claremont institution. The classes, which also take in woodcarving and block printing, have been conducted recently in the rear of Bothamley's jewelry store on Coast boulevard.

30 Students Sign to Join Oceanview Orchestra

OCEANVIEW.—William Leedke, who will direct the Oceanview school orchestra this year, reports that about 30 pupils have already signed to take part in the year's program and several more are expected to join later. The young musicians include Bruce Tanner, Olive Warfield, Gerald Buckley, Lloyd Field, Jimmie Stinson, Homer Farren, Billy Wood and Barbara Wood, violin; Dallas Mae Groves and Maxine Murphy, cello; Larry Moore, Betty Jean Beem, Maudean Ingram, Donald Harding, Phyllis Brush and Teddy Kadett, trumpet; Ruth Whitaker, Bruce Worthing and Gene Harding, clarinet; Betty Jean McKenzie, xylophone; Dorothy Murphy and Jessie Case, flute; John McCormick, drum; Bobby Letson, alto horn; Alvin Kratz, saxophone, and Betty Moulton, Vivian Huffmeister and Ruth Brown, piano.

Attend Meeting At Huntington

MIDWAY CITY.—Mrs. Harry Kingsbury, president of the local Woman's club, will attend a meeting at the Newport Harbor Beach Woman's club this afternoon in honor of Mrs. John Stewart of Hemet, president of the southern district.

Mrs. Kingsbury was accompanied by Mrs. Gale Dunstan, Mrs. Charles Whitte, Mrs. Robert Lowry, and Mrs. Fred Basse.

Editors and Their Opinions

A digest of ideas from Orange county newspapers, reprinted as being of interest to readers of The Journal.

JUSTUS CRAEMER FOR JOB
(Tustin News)
With the chairmanship of the state central committee of the Republican party coming to Southern California this year, loyal party members throughout the state with one accord are looking to Justus Craemer of Orange as the logical man to lead the party. Aside from the pride which we have in advocating an Orange county man for that most important position, Mr. Craemer is the choice of this paper strictly from the standpoint of party welfare. Knowing him and the work as we do, we would favor his selection for party leadership in the state at this critical time even were his residence in far away Siskiyou.

Craemer is known and liked throughout the state by men and women of all parties and creeds. Of dynamic, steel-spring energy and pleasing personality, to know him is to like him, and he is known as "Justus" from Del Norte to San Diego. Of keen, quick mind and unflagging energy he has been a tower of strength in many political campaigns, as not a few officials of both state and county can gratefully testify.

A consistent party man, his Republicanism has never been questioned, and yet he has not allowed himself to become embroiled in petty squabbles and factional strife. But his political acumen is not confined to party leaders and laymen of California, for it extends to national party councils, with personal conferences with Governor Landon, Colonel Knox and National Chairman Hamilton.

The Republican party of California will do the shrewd, the smart thing in selecting as its chairman and leader Justus Craemer of Orange.

"I suppose Miss Andrews has papers, documents, or something, to prove she is a detective?" he asked, and then added, before anyone answered, "Yes, of course, she would have. Well, that may fit her for the job, but it doesn't make her less subject to suspicion than the rest of us."

"I should say not," Rodney agreed. "Timothy interposed quietly.

"Timothy glanced at his watch. 'It's already six.' 'As for me, I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been standing like a shadow in the background. 'Ask the other servants to come here.' The butler moved away silently, and Timothy smiled at Ruth. 'Take charge.' 'If I had a pencil and a pad of paper, it would be easier,' she said quite seriously. 'I'm concerned, I'm quite well enough,' William said, although his face belied him. 'The sooner we get to the bottom of this business, the better.' Timothy nodded, and turned to Meyers, who had been

FEDERAL TAX REVENUE ON INCREASE

All But 14 of 68 U. S. Classifications Are Showing Uptrend

WASHINGTON (AP)—Increases in all but 14 of 68 classifications of federal taxes were shown today by the U. S. Treasury department in its report for the first two months of this fiscal year $75,000,000 over the corresponding 1935 period.

Receipts for July and August this year were set at $542,352,744.75, compared with $466,600,853.38 for period of a year ago. This increase occurred even though agricultural adjustment taxes, which provided $28,000,000 in the two 1935 months, were eliminated under a supreme court decision last January.

Capital Stock Largest
Largest receipts from a single levy were listed under the capital stock tax, with $109,428,128.44 for the 1936 period, compared with $85,300,046.30 in 1935.

Liquor tax receipts increased substantially, being listed at $111,927,807.44 and $91,456,233.18 for the 1936 and 1935 periods, respectively.

Revenue from the excise tax on imported distilled spirits climbed from $1,833,786 in July and August last year to $4,584,807 for the current year. The excise tax on domestic distilled spirits rose from $24,833,866 to $33,065,447, and increases also were shown in most other categories of liquor taxation.

Tobacco Taxes Rise
Aggregate tobacco tax receipts likewise pointed upward from $88,334,427.08 to $97,539,912.62, manufacturers excise tax revenues rose from $66,176,406 to $82,450,326, and miscellaneous tax proceeds rose from $15,102,657 to $17,301,499.

Among the decreases for the two months this year under last year were revenues from domestic and imported wine levies, chewing and smoking tobacco, and crude petroleum products.

In August, 1936, total internal revenue receipts were set at $254,026,253, compared with $229,638,818 for the same month a year ago, or an increase of $24,387,434.

Dividend Voted In Defunct Firm

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Sixteen thousand preferred stockholders of the Guaranty Building and Loan association, wrecked by embezzlement of Gilbert H. Bessemyer in 1930, are to receive their first liquidating dividend of half a million dollars.

Directors of the Guaranty Liquidating corporation declared a 15 cent per share dividend last night, derived from the sale of assets, and payable to stockholders of record Sept. 30.

Harold E. Murphy, in charge of liquidation, expressed hope a second dividend would be forthcoming "in the next six to nine months."

Reorganization Of Richfield Near

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Eighty per cent of Richfield bondholders and 70.8 per cent of the oil company's unsecured creditors, have agreed to a reorganization plan authorized last month. Federal Judge William P. James was informed today.

The plan was proposed by a group representing Harry F. Sinclair's oil interests and eastern financial houses.

Of the bondholders of Pan-American Petroleum, a subsidiary which was thrown into bankruptcy with Richfield several years ago, 79.6 per cent have approved the reorganization, a committee reported.

Poultry Market

LOS ANGELES.—Yesterday's closing prices on the poultry market follows:
No. 1—Hens—Leghorns, 2 1/2 to 3 lbs., 14c
2—Hens, Leghorns, over 3 1/2 lbs., 15c
3—Hens, Leghorns, over 4 lbs., 16c
4—Hens, Leghorns, over 4 1/2 lbs., 17c
5—Hens, Leghorns, over 4 1/2 lbs., 18c
6—Broilers, over 1 1/2 and up to 2 1/2 lbs., 19c
7—Broilers, over 2 1/2 and up to 3 1/2 lbs., 20c
8—Broilers, over 3 1/2 and up to 4 1/2 lbs., 21c
9—Broilers, over 4 1/2 and up to 5 1/2 lbs., 22c
10—Broilers, over 5 1/2 and up to 6 1/2 lbs., 23c
11—Broilers, over 6 1/2 and up to 7 1/2 lbs., 24c
12—Broilers, over 7 1/2 and up to 8 1/2 lbs., 25c
13—Stags, 14 to 16 lbs., 26c
14—Old roosters, 4 1/2 lbs. and up, 14c
15—Ducklings, 4 1/2 lbs. and up, 14c
16—Ducklings, under 4 1/2 lbs., 12c
17—Old ducks, 14 to 16 lbs., 14c
18—Geese, 14 to 16 lbs., 14c
19—Young turkeys, 13 lbs. and up, 18c
20—Young turkeys over 15 lbs., 19c
21—Hen turkeys, 9 lbs. and up, 20c
22—Old hen turkeys, 14 to 16 lbs., 14c
23—Old hen turkeys, 17 to 19 lbs., 15c
24—Squabs, under 11 lbs. per doz., 24c
25—Squabs, 11 lbs. per doz. and up, 25c
26—Capons, under 7 lbs. and up, 26c
27—Capons, 7 lbs. and up, 27c
28—Rabbits, No. 1 white, 3 1/2 to 4 lbs., 13c
29—Rabbits, No. 1 mixed colors, 11c
30—Rabbits, No. 2 old, 10c

Building Permits

BUILDING PERMITS
1935 total, 847 permits $922,309
1936 to date, 518 permits $483,365
Sept. to date, 61 permits $26,494
ISSUED SEPT. 21
A. W. Gerrard, 1010 South Main
Install new foundation and repairs, $500; owner, contractor.
Emmett C. Rogers, 2449 North Park boulevard, alter house and garage, $6,000; owner, contractor.
See's Candy Shops, Inc., 1125 West
Fourth street, alteration to store room and front, $1,500; owner, contractor.
Mrs. R. S. Garlock, 605 East Second street, re-roof $100; Holmes Roofing company, contractor.

To Appear in Passion Play

Two of the outstanding actors who will appear in the Passion play to be produced Sept. 23 and 24 in the Municipal hall, under auspices of the Santa Ana Elks lodge are shown here. Ralph Litton, left, will interpret the part of Peter and Joseph Smith, right, will enact the part of John in the Biblical drama.

TODAY'S CITRUS PRICES

Today citrus prices on the eastern markets, priced by size, are provided through the courtesy of the Orange County Fruit Exchange. Market is about steady. Sept. 22, 1936.

Size	100s	120s	150s	170s	200s	220s	250s	280s	340s	390s	Av.
NEW YORK—
Advance, Tustin	4.95	4.90	4.85	4.80	4.75	4.70	4.65	4.60	4.55	4.50	4.70
Shamrock, Placencia	5.00	5.00	5.15	5.15	5.15	5.10	5.05	5.00	4.95	4.90	5.10
BOSTON—
Rooster, Orange	4.65	4.60	4.55	4.50	4.45	4.40	4.35	4.30	4.25	4.20	4.45
Shamrock, Placencia	4.45	4.40	4.35	4.30	4.25	4.20	4.15	4.10	4.05	4.00	4.25
CHICAGO—
Rooster, Orange	4.45	4.40	4.35	4.30	4.25	4.20	4.15	4.10	4.05	4.00	4.25
Shamrock, Placencia	4.40	4.35	4.30	4.25	4.20	4.15	4.10	4.05	4.00	3.95	4.20
DETROIT—
Ventura, Lodi, Camarillo	4.10	4.05	4.00	3.95	3.90	3.85	3.80	3.75	3.70	3.65	3.90
PITTSBURGH—
King David, Anaheim	4.75	4.70	4.65	4.60	4.55	4.50	4.45	4.40	4.35	4.30	4.50
Polina, Fillmore	4.60	4.55	4.50	4.45	4.40	4.35	4.30	4.25	4.20	4.15	4.45
ST. LOUIS—
Polina, Fillmore	4.50	4.45	4.40	4.35	4.30	4.25	4.20	4.15	4.10	4.05	4.35
Shamrock, Placencia	4.50	4.45	4.40	4.35	4.30	4.25	4.20	4.15	4.10	4.05	4.35
LOS ANGELES (AP)—
The market was fairly strong for California oranges on eastern and middle western auction exchanges today. There was a diminishing demand for lemons, however.
Carlot auction sales averages per box of California citrus were reported to the California Fruit Growers exchange on its own brands, and to the Associated Press on all others, as follows:
ST. LOUIS.—The market for oranges was unchanged, although lemons were higher. Sales: 5 oranges; 1 lemon.
Valencias
Bonnie Lassie, ORX, chn., Orange, $3.60.
PITTSBURGH.—The market here for choice valencias was unchanged, with lemons lower. Sales: 2 cars oranges; 4 lemons.
Valencias
Mark Twain, ORF, Redball, France, $3.95.
BOSTON.—The market was valencias was higher here in spots with the best valencias unchanged in prices. Lemons were higher. Sales: 11 cars of oranges; 2 lemons.
Valencias
Scepter, ORS, Skt., Orange, $5.60; Rooster, ORS, Skt., Orange, $5.10; Tesoro, POB, Skt., Placencia, $4.65; Miracle, POB, Redball, Placencia, $4.15; Green Mill, POB, std., Placencia, $3.35; Blue Wing, NOG, chn., Fullerton, $3.80; Evangeline, NOU, Skt., Placencia, $4.65; Bird Rocks, ORV, Skt., Villa, Park, $5.00; Tick Tock, ORV, Redball, Villa Park, $4.15; Mother Colony, CORA, Skt., Anaheim, $4.75; El Paso Real, CORA, std., Anaheim, $3.45.
PHILADELPHIA.—The market for California valencias was higher in spots. The lemon market was easier. Sales: 10 oranges; 1 lemon.
Valencias
Scepter, ORS, Skt., Orange, $5.80; Rooster, ORS, Skt., Orange, $4.85; Martha Washington, ORT, Redball, Tustin, $3.80; Caledonia, POM, chn., Placencia, $3.65; Hector, ORZ, Redball, Olive, $3.70; Caledonia, POM, chn., Placencia, $3.45; Anaheim Finest, COR, Skt., Anaheim, $4.90; Anaheim Beauties, COR, Skt., Anaheim, $4.30; Anaheim, $3.80; Reliable, NOR, Ekt., La Habra, $4.20.
Lemons
Gold, ORC, Skt., Villa Park, $5.40; Comet, ORC, Redball, Villa Park, $5.50.
CHICAGO.—The market remained unchanged for valencias with a good demand for smaller oranges and lemons. Sales: oranges 13; lemons 3.
Valencias
Hi-Class, COR, Skt., Anaheim, $4.35; Anaheim Beauties, COR, Skt., Anaheim, $4.30; Rooster, ORS, Skt., Orange, $4.75.
Grain Market
CHICAGO (AP)—Brisk late upturn hoisted wheat prices about 2 cents today, with buying based on reports of record-breaking dry conditions in Canada.
All Winnipeg wheat futures rose to new highs for the season. Drought areas of Canadian prairie provinces were asserted to be probably more extensive than ever before at this time of year.
Wheat closed strong, 1 1/2-1 1/4 above yesterday's finish. September 1936-1937, December 1936-1937, corn 1 1/2-1 1/4 up, September 1936-1937, 1 1/2-1 1/4 up, December 1936-1937, 1 1/2-1 1/4 up, advanced, and provisions varying from 1/2 to 3/4 up. Prices follow:
WHEAT—High Low Close September 115 1/2 114 1/2 115 1/2 October 115 1/2 114 1/2 115 1/2 November 115 1/2 114 1/2 115 1/2 December 115 1/2 114 1/2 115 1/2 CORN—High Low Close September 95 93 95 95 October 95 93 95 95 November 95 93 95 95 December 95 93 95 95 RICE—High Low Close September 84 82 84 84 October 84 82 84 84 November 84 82 84 84 December 84 82 84 84 BARLEY—High Low Close September 77 75 77 77 October 77 75 77 77 November 77 75 77 77 December 77 75 77 77

BIG DEPOSITS SECURITY ACT WORRYING BANKERS

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—More money is on deposit in large Pacific coast banks than ever before. The bankers show no great enthusiasm over this record. They have no demand from business for funds that is commensurate with the supply—and putting these deposits to work is all-important to the stockholders.

The record deposits confronted the American Bankers Association, which opened a four-day convention here yesterday, with one of the most perplexing of the problems facing the country's financiers—how invest the funds?

The deposit total in the far west's city banks was $1,884,000,000 last Wednesday, when the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco made its survey, the results of which were made public yesterday.

These are the deposits of 31 banks in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Seattle, Portland, Tacoma, Spokane and Salt Lake City.

Ordinarily the city bank deposits have run in the neighborhood of 40 per cent of the total deposits of the Pacific slope. Thus the indications are that deposits west of the Rockies run well over four billions, possibly over 4 1/2 billions, and somewhere around one-tenth of the national deposits, lately estimated to be in the vicinity of 46 billions.

Ruth Owen Rohde Breaks Left Leg

WASHINGTON, Ind. (AP)—Mrs. Ruth Owen Rohde, former United States minister to Denmark and daughter of the late William Jennings Bryan, suffered a broken left leg in a fall here last night.

Mrs. Rohde fell shortly after she completed a speech here in which she urged the re-election of President Roosevelt. She was running beside her automobile in an attempt to get into it and stop its dash toward a small lake. Mr. Rohde was in the car at the time. He had attempted to turn it around on a hillside when it got out of control.

After Mrs. Rohde fell, the car continued downhill, finally stopping against a tree. Mr. Rohde was not injured.

Poultry Picnic Is Postponed

Postponement of the annual poultry picnic of the Orange County Farm bureau, originally scheduled for Thursday, was announced today.

A committee will meet tonight to set a new date. The picnic was cancelled because of a conflict with a meeting of the Poultry Service club in Pomona on the same evening. Many from Orange county plan to attend the latter.

Photograph Agent Gets $35 Fine

Charged with soliciting for photographic coloring work without a city license, Theodore Dufrenoy, 305 Santa Ana salesman, was fined $35 today by Acting City Judge John Landell.

Dufrenoy was arrested on a warrant this morning by officers. He walked away the time between his arrest and trial by playing solitaire in the police station.

L. A. Livestock

LOS ANGELES (AP)—(U. S. Dept. Agr.)—

LETTERS—Santa Maria and Guadalupe dry pack 40 $2.50-2.75, fair quality $2.25-2.50; extra 50 $2.50-2.75; extra 60 $2.50-2.75; extra 70 $2.50-2.75; extra 80 $2.50-2.75; extra 90 $2.50-2.75; extra 100 $2.50-2.75; extra 110 $2.50-2.75; extra 120 $2.50-2.75; extra 130 $2.50-2.75; extra 140 $2.50-2.75; extra 150 $2.50-2.75; extra 160 $2.50-2.75; extra 170 $2.50-2.75; extra 180 $2.50-2.75; extra 190 $2.50-2.75; extra 200 $2.50-2.75; extra 210 $2.50-2.75; extra 220 $2.50-2.75; extra 230 $2.50-2.75; extra 240 $2.50-2.75; extra 250 $2.50-2.75; extra 260 $2.50-2.75; extra 270 $2.50-2.75; extra 280 $2.50-2.75; extra 290 $2.50-2.75; extra 300 $2.50-2.75; extra 310 $2.50-2.75; extra 320 $2.50-2.75; extra 330 $2.50-2.75; extra 340 $2.50-2.75; extra 350 $2.50-2.75; extra 360 $2.50-2.75; extra 370 $2.50-2.75; extra 380 $2.50-2.75; extra 390 $2.50-2.75; extra 400 $2.50-2.75; extra 410 $2.50-2.75; extra 420 $2.50-2.75; extra 430 $2.50-2.75; extra 440 $2.50-2.75; extra 450 $2.50-2.75; extra 460 $2.50-2.75; extra 470 $2.50-2.75; extra 480 $2.50-2.75; extra 490 $2.50-2.75; extra 500 $2.50-2.75; extra 510 $2.50-2.75; extra 520 $2.50-2.75; extra 530 $2.50-2.75; extra 540 $2.50-2.75; extra 550 $2.50-2.75; extra 560 $2.50-2.75; extra 570 $2.50-2.75; extra 580 $2.50-2.75; extra 590 $2.50-2.75; extra 600 $2.50-2.75; extra 610 $2.50-2.75; extra 620 $2.50-2.75; extra 630 $2.50-2.75; extra 640 $2.50-2.75; extra 650 $2.50-2.75; extra 660 $2.50-2.75; extra 670 $2.50-2.75; extra 680 $2.50-2.75; extra 690 $2.50-2.75; extra 700 $2.50-2.75; extra 710 $2.50-2.75; extra 720 $2.50-2.75; extra 730 $2.50-2.75; extra 740 $2.50-2.75; extra 750 $2.50-2.75; extra 760 $2.50-2.75; extra 770 $2.50-2.75; extra 780 $2.50-2.75; extra 790 $2.50-2.75; extra 800 $2.50-2.75; extra 810 $2.50-2.75; extra 820 $2.50-2.75; extra 830 $2.50-2.75; extra 840 $2.50-2.75; extra 850 $2.50-2.75; extra 860 $2.50-2.75; extra 870 $2.50-2.75; extra 880 $2.50-2.75; extra 890 $2.50-2.75; extra 900 $2.50-2.75; extra 910 $2.50-2.75; extra 920 $2.50-2.75; extra 930 $2.50-2.75; extra 940 $2.50-2.75; extra 950 $2.50-2.75; extra 960 $2.50-2.75; extra 970 $2.50-2.75; extra 980 $2.50-2.75; extra 990 $2.50-2.75; extra 1000 $2.50-2.75; extra 1010 $2.50-2.75; extra 1020 $2.50-2.75; extra 1030 $2.50-2.75; extra 1040 $2.50-2.75; extra 1050 $2.50-2.75; extra 1060 $2.50-2.75; extra 1070 $2.50-2.75; extra 1080 $2.50-2.75; extra 1090 $2.50-2.75; extra 1100 $2.50-2.75; extra 1110 $2.50-2.75; extra 1120 $2.50-2.75; extra 1130 $2.50-2.75; extra 1140 $2.50-2.75; extra 1150 $2.50-2.75; extra 1160 $2.50-2.75; extra 1170 $2.50-2.75; extra 1180 $2.50-2.75; extra 1190 $2.50-2.75; extra 1200 $2.50-2.75; extra 1210 $2.50-2.75; extra 1220 $2.50-2.75; extra 1230 $2.50-2.75; extra 1240 $2.50-2.75; extra 1250 $2.50-2.75; extra 1260 $2.50-2.75; extra 1270 $2.50-2.75; extra 1280 $2.50-2.75; extra 1290 $2.50-2.75; extra 1300 $2.50-2.75; extra 1310 $2.50-2.75; extra 1320 $2.50-2.75; extra 1330 $2.50-2.75; extra 1340 $2.50-2.75; extra 1350 $2.50-2.75; extra 1360 $2.50-2.75; extra 1370 $2.50-2.75; extra 1380 $2.50-2.75; extra 1390 $2.50-2.75; extra 1400 $2.50-2.75; extra 1410 $2.50-2.75; extra 1420 $2.50-2.75; extra 1430 $2.50-2.75; extra 1440 $2.50-2.75; extra 1450 $2.50-2.75; extra 1460 $2.50-2.75; extra 1470 $2.50-2.75; extra 1480 $2.50-2.75; extra 1490 $2.50-2.75; extra 1500 $2.50-2.75; extra 1510 $2.50-2.75; extra 1520 $2.50-2.75; extra 1530 $2.50-2.75; extra 1540 $2.50-2.75; extra 1550 $2.50-2.75; extra 1560 $2.50-2.75; extra 1570 $2.50-2.75; extra 1580 $2.50-2.75; extra 1590 $2.50-2.75; extra 1600 $2.50-2.75; extra 1610 $2.50-2.75; extra 1620 $2.50-2.75; extra 1630 $2.50-2.75; extra 1640 $2.50-2.75; extra 1650 $2.50-2.75; extra 1660 $2.50-2.75; extra 1670 $2.50-2.75; extra 1680 $2.50-2.75; extra 1690 $2.50-2.75; extra 1700 $2.50-2.75; extra 1710 $2.50-2.75; extra 1720 $2.50-2.75; extra 1730 $2.50-2.75; extra 1740 $2.50-2.75; extra 1750 $2.50-2.75; extra 1760 $2.50-2.75; extra 1770 $2.50-2.75; extra 1780 $2.50-2.75; extra 1790 $2.50-2.75; extra 1800 $2.50-2.75; extra 1810 $2.50-2.75; extra 1820 $2.50-2.75; extra 1830 $2.50-2.75; extra 1840 $2.50-2.75; extra 1850 $2.50-2.75; extra 1860 $2.50-2.75; extra 1870 $2.50-2.75; extra 1880 $2.50-2.75; extra 189

COUNCIL RECOMMENDS OPENING BOWERS MUSEUM ON SUNDAYS

BRUNS MAKES MOTION FOR CHANGE

Many Are Unable to Visit Local Institution on Week Days

Bowers Memorial museum may be thrown open to the public on Sundays.

Taking note of numerous requests over a period of months that the institution's hours be adjusted to allow more use of it by Santa Anans, the city council last night recommended the new schedule to the city museum board.

Councilman Plummer Bruns, in asking the action, pointed out that the museum is attracting many visitors, including historians and scientists, and that it is of cultural and educational value.

"Many people can't get into the museum except on Sunday," he said. "The institution is now open only on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays from 10 a. m. to noon and from 2 to 4:30 p. m."

Several letters have asked the city council to "let the common people" use the museum.

Boy Gave Blood to Another in Vain

CHICAGO, (AP)—Maurice Oldham, Kentucky school boy, recently in an effort to save the life of Philip Levitt, 7, made his trip in vain, Philip's father said today.

Philip is a victim of streptococcus veridans, a dreaded and often fatal infection of the blood stream. Maurice, 13, the son of a Lexington, Ky., police commissioner, once suffered from the same disease. Physicians hoped a transfusion of blood from Maurice might help Philip.

Maurice came and gave blood twice to Philip.

Today, Philip's father, Morris Levitt, said his ailing son was "no better."

Bring Back the Toothpick, Dentist
Tells Convention

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Dr. W. J. Charters was on record today as deploring the social outlawing of the toothpick.

"Humanity has suffered as a result," Dr. Charters told the convention of the Southern California State Dental association. "Every one with bad teeth has a bone to pick with fashion for exiling the toothpick."

Manipulation of the toothpick, the Des Moines, Iowa, dentist said, gives the tissue between the teeth necessary stimulation.

FEDERAL INSURANCE FOR YOUR SAVINGS

New Plan giving double protection deserves attention from investors

Regular dividends as earned, plus insurance of savings against loss up to $5,000 by the Federal Savings & Loan Insurance Corporation.

Ask for booklet

WHERE YOU SEE THIS EMBLEM YOUR SAVINGS ARE SAFE

FIRST FEDERAL

Savings and Loan Ass'n. of Santa Ana

R. C. Radandt, Secy.
314 N. MAIN ST. PHONE 155

Rallies Women

Mrs. Grace B. Reynolds (above), former Indiana state treasurer, took over the Republican drive for women's votes in the West. She will direct the campaign in 29 states. (Associated Press)

LETTUCE SALE WATCHED BY STRIKERS

Possibility that labor officials here will be asked to discourage the handling of "hot" lettuce from the Salinas valley was seen today in developments in Los Angeles.

There a committee of the central labor council is asking produce men not to handle lettuce from the strike area. Vice President H. B. McMurray of the council said:

"We received a request from the striking Salinas union to place on our unfair list those who handle the hot lettuce here. I took a committee of executives of the council and we began calling on the local merchants to dissuade them from handling the stuff."

Norris Stone, member of the Orange County Central Labor council, said he had not yet received such a request from Salinas, but that he believed lettuce from the northern "salad bowl" is being shipped here.

In Los Angeles McMurray indicated that picketing may be resorted to later if produce men continue to handle Salinas lettuce.

English Actress
Seeks Divorce

HOLLYWOOD, (AP)—The film colony's rumors that all was not marital harmony between Binnie Barnes, English film actress, and Samuel Joseph, had court vindication today.

Miss Barnes filed suit for divorce yesterday, charging cruelty and desertion on the part of her husband, London art dealer and book publisher.

BESSIE LOVE PLANS TO SEEK DIVORCE

HOLLYWOOD, (AP)—When her health permits, Bessie Love said today, she will begin divorce proceedings against William Hawks, theatrical agent. The former screen actress is in Pasadena hospital suffering from an infection caused by an ulcerated tooth.

COOK ARRESTED

Edward A. Knapp, 32, cook of 414 1/2 West Fourth street, was in the county jail today on parole violation charges. He was arrested Saturday by sheriff's officers.

Sharps and Flats From The Political BandwagonROOSEVELT PLANS TO SPEAK AT CLEVELAND

CLEVELAND, (AP)—President Roosevelt will deliver a major campaign address here in October, Congressman-at-Large Stephen M. Young said he had been advised by Democratic national campaign headquarters. Young said the definite date was determined, but that the President probably would speak at a night meeting in the huge Lakefront stadium.

SMITH TO MAKE TALK
OPPOSING ROOSEVELT

NEW YORK, (AP)—Former Governor Alfred E. Smith will address a mass meeting at Carnegie hall Oct. 1 under the auspices of the Independent Coalition of American Women, which is working to defeat the New Deal. It will be Smith's first speech in the campaign, the coalition office announced.

LEWIS IN ANOTHER
ATTACK ON PRESIDENT

PEORIA, Ill. (AP)—Representative William Lewis of North Dakota, seeking the presidency as

WILL REVEAL SECRETS OF FLYING

Free Ground School to Be Started Here on October 1

What's the difference between a sky hook, a tail spin, and a guy wire?

It's all mixed up, but the problem will be straightened out for anyone who wants to know, beginning Oct. 1.

Because Floyd Wright, operator of the flying school of that name here, will teach flyers, would-be flyers, and anyone else who wants to know in a "ground school" course sponsored by the city schools.

16 Week Course

Announcement of the school was made today by Dale Deckert, local representative of the National Aeronautical association, who worked out details of the plan with W. W. Wieman, principal of Julia Lathrop Evening High school, and School Superintendent Frank Henderson.

The class will meet each Thursday night from 7 to 9 o'clock, for 16 weeks. The course will be the same as that given army flying cadets in the theoretical division.

Instruction Free

"This course will be useful not only to flyers," Deckert said. "It doesn't make any difference whether or not they've ever been in an airplane. It gives one a better insight into aviation, and will be especially useful for anyone who might be interested in working for an aviation concern, even though he were only a bookkeeper."

Registration for the course, which is free to the public, may be made at the Lathrop school or with Deckert.

SEE CANDY SHOP
TO OPEN HERE

There'll be a shiny porcelain front glowing out at passersby at 112 West Fourth street inside of three weeks.

And inside will be the thirty-fourth branch of the See Candy company, started 15 years ago in Los Angeles. It will specialize in cash home-made candy delivered every day from the See Los Angeles kitchens.

Lawrence See, grandson of the founder of the concern, said today he had taken a long term lease on half the store space at that address and hoped to be moved in within three weeks. The store will be remodeled and thoroughly lighted, he said, using Santa Ana workmen and materials.

Student's Courtesy
Enriches College
Million and Half

LEXINGTON, Va. (AP)—The courtesy shown by an unknown student years ago to a campus visitor has enriched the Washington and Lee university by approximately $1,500,000. The visitor was Robert P. Doremus, New York Stock Exchange broker, who inspected several southern universities with a view to bestowing his estate upon one as a memorial.

The story goes that he came to Washington and Lee unheralded and walked about the campus. He was impressed by the cordiality shown him by a student, and when Doremus died in 1913 he specified that his estate should go to the institution after his wife died.

His widow, Mrs. Jessie R. Doremus, died in New York Sunday.

Hopkins Defends WPA
In Arizona Speech

PHOENIX, (AP)—Harry L. Hopkins, national Works Progress administrator, with a forceful defense of the WPA program and a stinging arraignment of its critics, dedicated the $200,000 grandstand at the Arizona state fair grounds here yesterday. Approximately 2500 persons sitting in the big concrete structure, christened B. B. Moore stadium in honor of Arizona's governor, cheered when Hopkins declared "relief of unemployment is a matter of right and not of charity."

Protests Tax for Cleaning Off Lot

"My lot is right next to a Mexican church, and it's so small it hardly seems the passing feet would allow any weeds to grow," Mrs. Sophie A. Witt of San Pedro wrote the city council in a letter received last night.

She protested a $3 weed cleaning assessment. The council ordered a reply that the work had been done, and the amount placed on the tax roll, and that it would be impossible to make any change.

++ History Makers ++ Noted California Authors Listed by Writer of 'History Makers'

(Men are remembered after their death for their unselfish service to their fellow men. Robert Gardner of Orange has written a series of articles about pioneers of this section, which The Journal is publishing in order to preserve the memory and deeds of outstanding characters. Today's sketch tells about California writers.—Editor)

A California author is a person who is born in California or is re-born in the Golden State. He is one who writes about the greatest territory in the world.

It seems to me that I should mention a few of the famous authors who have served the reading public by publishing books about California. Perhaps it might be a tip for you, and you will select one of the books for your next reading rendezvous.

Have you read Richard Henry Dana's "Two Years Before the Mast"? It is a story of the early California coast. In that story are many incidents about California and California characters. Orange county's own author because that point down by Laguna Beach called Dana Point was named after him.

Have you read "Ramona" by Helen Hunt Jackson? This book is the purest type of California fiction. It is about the Indians. Have you read the Ramona pageant at Hemet?

Gertrude Atherton wrote a history of California. It was an intimate study. She is one of the modern writers who knows her California and appreciates a wonderful place for her home.

Mark Twain wrote about "Dad Sellers" who died in the Silverado canyon. Mark Twain is the real American humorist, and Dad Sellers was one of his best characters.

John Steven McGoorty wrote the famous Mission play. He has written a very fine history of California.

Democrats Praise Landon
While Republican Group
Lauds Bourbon Candidate

The Journal conducts this forum so that its readers may receive full and authoritative information upon the issues of the presidential campaign. Horace E. Crampton, chairman of the county Democratic campaign committee, and B. Z. McKinney are in charge of that party's contributions. Howard Irwin, head of the Republican county central committee, and Dr. W. E. Dixon are contributing their party's articles.—Editor's note.

BY THE REPUBLICANS

Democrats as well as Republicans, have taken journeys to Topeka, Kan., to interview Gov. Landon and to find out his position about foreign affairs, his stand on labor, agriculture, economics, and especially how it was possible for a Governor in Kansas to put his state on a cash paying basis, to reduce his taxes, and yet pay off over $18,500,000 of public debt, to reduce the expense of the government $2,500,000 a year, in spite of the depression and the drought that hit Kansas in 1934.

The son of ex-Senator Bailey, ex-Senator Reed, of Missouri, and ex-Governor Ely of Massachusetts are just a few of the Democrats who made the journey to Topeka. Many former New Dealers have also made this journey and learned from first hand that Mr. Landon's philosophy of government is sound and that he is well versed in all departments of state.

"Coolidge of the West"

These many visitors to Topeka went back home to their various states and began talking Landon for president. This, perhaps, is why he was unanimously nominated at the Republican national convention.

He has been favorably compared to Lincoln and has been called the "Coolidge of the West." He has a reputation of picking the best men for the job in hand, whether the men picked be a Republican or Democrat.

I believe should Landon be elected to the presidency that he will call into service the best minds that can be found. He will have a national government consisting of Democrats and Republicans. He is progressive, but not a radical.

Today's press dispatches report that Senator Rush D. Holt, the youthful West Virginia Democrat, was at Topeka and told reporters he was "favorably impressed" with the Republican presidential nominee. "I think WPA is more scandalous than Teapot Dome. No, I won't make any statement at all on whom I'm going to vote for president. I may announce it later, and I may not."

Among them we find Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California, Senator Couzens of Michigan, Senator Norris of Nebraska, and Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin, and others. Some of these men will support Roosevelt at the risk of their own personal political fortunes.

Senator Couzens, for example, who is one of the outstanding men in the United States senate, and a former partner of Henry Ford, is risking his entire political career by his outspoken support of the president. Senator Couzens has been a life-long Republican and has been elected to the Senate each time on the Republican ticket. When such an outstanding national figure and leader is willing to risk his entire political future in this openly supporting the President, and for the furtherance of the fight for equality of opportunity, he must be firmly convinced of the necessity of continuing Roosevelt policies for another four years. We can profit by his example.

Uruguay Protests
Slayings in Spain

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay, (AP)—Execution of Dolores and Maria Aguilar, sisters of the Uruguayan vice-consul in Madrid, was reported by dispatches from the Spanish capital received today.

The Uruguayan government decided, after conferring on the reports, to send a strong protest to the Spanish government in Madrid and to call attention to the reported slayings in the assembly of the League of Nations at Geneva.

TIDELAND OIL
BILL TABLED
BY CITY

Council Fails to Act on Request by Park
Unit for Okay

It's a rather irregular business when one branch of the state government asks another unit—a city council—to make recommendations in favor of one side of a political question.

That's what City Attorney Lew W. Blodgett told the city council last night when that body received a letter from the state division of parks, asking it to adopt a resolution in favor of proposition No. 9 on the November ballot, the slant-drilling tideland oil bill.

The council merely filed the request.

"What does that (the bill) mean?" Councilman Plummer Bruns wanted to know. "That the Standard Oil company has all the tideland snapped up and doesn't want anyone else to get any of it?"

No one attempted to answer the question.

The bill proposes to allow slant drilling from the uplands into the state-owned pool at Huntington Beach, on a basis whereby the state would receive royalties, part of which would be used for state park development.

Taxi Parking to Be Regulated

Opening the way for closer regulation of taxicab companies and limiting the amount of curb space they may take up, an ordinance amendment was adopted by the city council last night.

As explained by City Attorney Lew W. Blodgett, the amendment corrects an oversight in a previous ordinance and grants the council power to designate the position and size of space allotted to taxis.

Admit Ex-G-Man
To Law Practice

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Melvin Purvis, former agent of the department of justice, bureau of investigation, was admitted to law practice in California by the state supreme court yesterday.

Half-Minute
News Items
(By Associated Press)SET TRIAL FOR FOUR
ON SLAYING CHARGE

OAKLAND, (AP)—The trial of Earl King, E. C. Ramsey, Frank Conner and George Wallace on charges of slaying George Alberts, chief engineer of the freighter Point Lobos, has been set for Oct. 26.

WACO COTTON GINS
ON 24-HOUR SCHEDULE

WASCO, Calif.—Cotton gins here are running on a 24-hour schedule to take care of this area's largest cotton crop. The Growers Cooperative association said 600 bales were ginned to Sept. 17.

U. S. GIVES ORKNEY
PACIFIC AIR TRAVEL

WASHINGTON.—The bureau of air commerce announced it had given Pan-American Airways permission to start passenger carrying flights between Oakland, Calif., and Manila.

ACCIDENT AND HEALTH
CLUBS NAME CHIEF

SAN FRANCISCO.—C. M. Beales, of Los Angeles, is the new president of the California association of Accident and Health clubs, an insurance organization, following an election here.

DENY TITULESCU
POISONED PURPOSELY

ST. MORITZ, Switzerland.—Doctors attending Nicholas Titulescu, former Rumanian foreign minister, issued a statement designed to dispel rumors he had been poisoned deliberately. The statement said the Rumanian was suffering acute anemia.

MASSACHUSETTS BANS
ICKES' SON AS DRIVER

BOSTON.—Frank A. Goodwin, registrar of motor vehicles has suspended the right of Robert H. Ickes, adopted son of the secretary of the interior, to operate motor vehicles in Massachusetts. Goodwin said the report of his inspectors held Ickes "entirely to blame" for an accident Sept. 12 in which five persons claimed injuries.

JOAN BLONDELL, DICK
POWELL ON HONEYMOON

HOLLYWOOD.—Joan Blondell and Dick Powell sailed down the coast of Mexico today, starting a honeymoon that will take them to New York. They were married Saturday night aboard the liner Santa Paula shortly before it left its San Pedro dock.

Eleanor Young, daughter of Robert R. Young of New York and Newport, R. I., debutante of this season, who was one of the two New York debutantes threatened unless sums totaling $30,000 were paid. William J. Butler, 18, of Brooklyn, was arrested and police say he admitted writing the threatening letters.

TROLLEY WIRE REMOVAL IS DEMANDED

Another step was taken today in the campaign to rid Santa Ana of the unsightly trolley wires on North Main street from Fourth to Twenty-third.

City Attorney Lew Blodgett sent a letter to the Pacific Electric Railway company, demanding their reasons for not complying with the request of the city, made eight months ago, for removal of the trolley wires.

After the council had first demanded removal of the wires the Pacific Electric took immediate steps in that direction, by requesting permission for their removal, from the state railroad commission.

Permission was granted, with the proviso that the wires be taken down within 30 days. This permission was given the rail company six months ago.

Since that time no action has been taken. The wires still are an unsightly blemish along North Main.

The tracks for which the wires originally were intended have been out of use for four years. Passenger traffic was abandoned in January, 1932, and freight traffic was abandoned some months later.

The overhead wires since that time have been unsightly, and in times of high winds or storms, have been dangerous, Blodgett said today.

But today the city took steps designed to force action on the matter.

Hint Italy Seeks
New U. S. Loans

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Secretary Hull said he had no information concerning reports that Italy might soon seek to refund its war debt to the United States with a view to obtaining new loans in this country. He declined to make any comment.

NEED A DOCTOR?

TURN TO THE Telephone

NOTHING DOES SO MUCH FOR SO LITTLE

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA TELEPHONE COMPANY

201 East Fifth Street Telephone 4600

PROGRAM FOR SPARE TIME
OUTLINED

Recreation for Adults to Be Aim of Project
Starting Soon

Program for the Santa Ana community institute of leisure time activities, sponsored by the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A. and public schools, was announced today. Activities will begin Sept. 23.

All adults are eligible to take part, with classes on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings from Sept. 28 to Nov. 20. No charge is made for the courses, the only expense being for personal equipment.

The schedule for physical education classes: Monday, badminton, 7-9 p. m.; Y. M. C. A. gymnasium; Tuesday, volleyball, 7-9 p. m.; Y. M. C. A. gymnasium; Wednesday, fencing, Y. M. C. A. gymnasium; Thursday, health exercise, 7-9 p. m.; Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. Women's swimming classes will be held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings at the Y. M. C. A. pool.

Prof. J. Gustav White of Whit-tier college will conduct a class in "job finding" Thursday evenings at the Y. M. C. A. Other classes include "Personality and Human Relationships," Friday evenings, Y. W. C. A.; "Social Games," Friday evenings, Y. M. C. A.; "Chairmanship," Wednesday evenings, Y. M. C. A.

A course of lectures for men in "The Hygiene of Middle Age" will be presented at the Y. M. C. A. six Tuesdays beginning Oct. 6.

Further information may be obtained at the Y. M. C. A. or Y. W. C. A., where registrations are being taken for all courses.

MWD to Announce
Future Tax Rates

Metropolitan Water district will announce in two or three weeks its estimates of future tax rates, City Auditor Lloyd Banks told the city council last night.

He said Col. S. H. Finley, Santa Ana member of the district board of directors, had reported that engineers and auditors are at work on the question and will have an answer soon.

Recently the MWD board estimated the rate next year will be about 43 cents per $100 of assessed valuation. The rate this year is 37 cents, as compared with 20 cents last year and 10 cents the previous year.

Know Your County

1. Where was lime produced in Orange county in early days?
  2. Who founded the town of Snelizer?
  3. Who is city judge at La Habra?
  4. What Congressional act of June, 1936, provided funds for work in Orange county?
  5. Where was the Santa Ana opera house?
- Please turn to classified page for answers.

Chairman of Assistance League Welcomed Home Following Trip to the Orient

Group Meets At Irvine Home

Mmes. Fred Rowland, Emrys D. White Substitute

Welcoming home their leader, Mrs. James Irvine, whose presence at the last two vacation meetings has been missed, Santa Ana Assistance League members were interested in hearing about her trip to the Orient yesterday when they gathered at her home on Myford road, Tustin, for their semi-monthly luncheon and bridge afternoon.

With this meeting, the regular gatherings of the league are being resumed for the new club year, and Mrs. Irvine's home will again form the gathering place for the parties every other Monday.

For her tables in the dining and breakfast room yesterday, the hostess chose exquisite arrangements of roses and little silver figures, with bouquets of bright dahlias on buffet and side tables.

Two members of the official substitute list were included in yesterday's function, Mrs. Emrys D. White and Mrs. Fred Rowland playing in the places of Mrs. Mortimer Plum and Mrs. J. A. George.

During the brief business session, presided over by Mrs. Irvine, Mrs. A. G. Flagg gave a report of the nursery school which is supported by the league activities.

DAISY MOTIF CARRIED OUT IN PARTY

Daisies told their old story over again at a lovely party given this week by Mrs. T. F. Newcomb and Miss Pauline Riley in honor of Mrs. Floyd Wright, the former Winifred Triplet, when that traditional flower of lovers was chosen as the motif for the decorations.

Gerberas, those bright-colored daisies from far-away Transvaal, formed the centerpiece on the table which was spread with a lace cloth, their gay hues finding a contrasting background in the white bowl which contained them and in the white candlesticks which held henna tapers on either side.

Card tables set with white and silver stood in rows, and for the guests after they had been served, and small white bowls of gerberas centered each of these. Place cards, too, bore the daisy symbol, and prizes and the gift presented later to the recent bride were wrapped in white paper with brown daisy design. Bridge prizes were won by Miss Jennie Clark, high, and Miss Ruby Aabel, low.

The gift to the honored guest from her assembled friends was a lovely electric clock. Those participating in the delightful courtesy were Miss Jeannette Roby, Miss Marjorie Mathes, Mrs. Ruth Riley, who assisted in serving, Miss Jennie Clark, Miss Ruby Aabel and the guest of honor and two hostesses.

Mrs. and Mrs. Wright, who were married a week ago in a ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Triplet, are now residing in Costa Mesa, following a honeymoon trip.

HOME FROM ARIZONA

Miss Barbara Horton, who will be married during the Thanksgiving holidays to Hansell U. Coulson of Tucson, Ariz., returned home Sunday night from Tucson, where she and Miss Betty Wiswall of Santa Ana had gone for a week's visit with friends. Miss Horton formerly attended the University of Arizona in that city.

SUPERIOR PERMANENT WAVES retain their beauty longer than ordinary waves at these popular prices. Extra care and the best of materials help us to more than satisfy our many customers.

WAVES ALSO
$1.50 - $1.95 - $2.50
5 Students Who enroll now in Our Fall Classes WILL OBTAIN A
SPECIAL LOW RATE
All Work Done by Students
SUPERIOR SCHOOL OF BEAUTY
410 1/2 N. Main St. Phone 234

M. MARTIN RECOMMENDS YOUTHFUL FROCK FOR SCHOOL OR PLAY

PATTERN 9977
For a fashion-conscious Junior's play or school frock, nothing could be nicer than this adorable Marian Martin model with its quaint "vest" effect front. The frock is simple to slip into, too, buttoning in the front—and it allows plenty of room for active young legs, as witness the action back and full skirt pleats. A smart checked, striped or plaid wool-like cotton would be grand for this frock. Young girls always seem to love gay colors. Be sure to tuck a contrasting bow beneath the flattering Peter Pan collar. Its simple lines are easy as ABC to stitch up, and the pattern's quickly put together aided by the accompanying Complete Diagrammed Marian Martin Sewing Chart.

Pattern 9977 may be ordered only in sizes 8, 10, 12, 14 and 16. Size 10 requires 1 1/2 yards 54-inch fabric and 3/4 yard 2-inch ribbon. Send 15 cents in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for each Marian Martin pattern. Be sure to write plainly your name, address and style number.

Be Sure to State Size
Be sure to order the new issue of our Marian Martin Pattern Book! Be the first to wear the latest fall models that it shows—for home, business, shopping, sports, parties. See the thrilling pages of special slenderizing designs... the clever models for children, growing girls, teens... the latest fabrics and costume accessories. Book 15 cents. Pattern 15 cents. Twenty-five cents for both when ordered together. Send your order to Santa Ana Journal, Pattern Department, 117 East Fifth street.

Teachers Of Tustin Schools Feted At Lovely Courtesy

Tustin teachers were honored guests at a delightful party last night when the Parent-Teacher associations of both the high school and grammar school of that town joined as hostesses at an evening reception and program at the high school to honor the faculty groups of both schools.

The party provided an opportunity for the teachers and parents to meet a new member of their teaching family, Ernest Harwood, who has come to Tustin this year to be the new principal of the grammar school.

In Receiving Line
Mr. Harwood and J. W. Means, the latter the principal of the high school, and Mrs. Joseph L. Marshall, president of the high school P.T.A., and Mrs. Robert Korff, grammar school P.T.A. head, received the 175 guests as they arrived.

They were next greeted by Mrs. K. K. Brand and Mrs. W. S. Leinberger, who labeled them with tags bearing their own names; and Mrs. Glenn S. Warner, a member of the flower committee who presented each teacher with a rosebud, pink for the school faculty members and yellow for the high school.

Program Enjoyed
The school's attractive patio was the setting for the reception, and the program, arranged by the Mesdames Maurice Enderle, Howard Timmons, Clarence Nisson,

SPURGEON TEACHER BRIDE OF EASTERNER

Latest among Santa Ana's school set to join the ranks of newlyweds is Miss Eleanor Longworth, who on September 1, in a quiet ceremony at Yuma, Ariz., became the bride of Donald W. Christie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Christie of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Christie, who is the daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Longworth of 907 West Broadway, Anaheim, has been a member of the faculty of Spurgeon school here for the past eight years. She has resumed her teaching duties, and her husband, who is in business in northern California, is a frequent weekend visitor in the city.

The rites were performed by the Rev. Mr. Raymond Acheson, pastor of the Yuma Presbyterian church, the bride wearing a floral printed crepe ensemble. A motoring honeymoon through the Southland followed, the couple then returning to establish their home at 334 Normandy place.

Both are graduates of the University of California at Los Angeles. The bridegroom's father is associate chief of the civil division in the national capital.

ASHER'S
IS THE HOUSE OF
OF • High Grade
• Nationally Advertised
Jewelry - - Watches
Silverware
Convenient terms weekly or monthly - no interest - just like a cash purchase.
ASHER
Jewelry Co.
In Santa Ana Since 1920
210 WEST 4TH ST.

Rehearsal Is Followed by Supper

Climaxing a series of lovely pre-nuptial courtesies, which have filled the gay weeks leading up to her marriage next Friday evening to Loren Hemphill of this city, Miss Marjorie Hoff and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Hoff of 1126 North Flower street, entertained members of the wedding party Sunday night at a supper party following rehearsal in the Hoff home.

The party was given in the backyard of the Louis Hoff residence on South Parton, where hamburgers were fried in the outdoor barbecue pit, and where ice cream and cake were served to the group. Mrs. Louis Hoff, aunt of the bride-to-be, assisted.

Minister at Party
Enjoying the informal party were the Rev. Mr. Louis White of Long Beach, pastor of the South Santa Ana Church of Christ, who will perform the ceremony Friday at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride-elect's parents, and his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Louis White, also of the southern beach city.

Virgil Hemphill, brother of the bridegroom-to-be, who will play the vibraphone for numbers before the service; the Misses Ruth and Vivian Switzer, the former to sing and the latter to play her accompaniments; Miss Alice Whitten, who will play the wedding marches.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cannon and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hoff, uncles and aunts of the bride-to-be, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hoff, and her grandmother, Mrs. Anna Hoff, the latter from Pasadena, and Miss Hoff and Mr. Hemphill, who will be the principals in the ceremony.

Choosing simplicity as the keynote of their wedding, the young couple will have no attendants, some of their closest friends participating in the musical accompaniments which will be a pretty feature of the service.

Earlier Courtesy
A number of parties have been given for the Santa Ana since announcement of her plans, the affairs concluding last Friday evening with a shower and informal bridge courtesy at which five of her friends presided as hostesses.

The party was given by Mrs. Curtis Browning and daughter, Mrs. Cleland Harbaugh, Mrs. Philip Gerrard, and the Misses Alice Whitten and Vivian Switzer, at the Browning home on Hickory street.

After the bridge games, little individual cakes with wedding bell decoration in the frosting were served with dainty ices to the following guests:
Mesdames C. N. Turner, E. L. Patton, Harry Switzer, L. F. Hoff, Fay Whitten, Vivian Smith, Anna Hoff, J. Y. Corbin, Charles Morgan, Miss Ruth Switzer, and the guest of honor, her mother and the five hostesses.

PARTIES MARK PRE-WEDDING WEEKS

Not very far away is the wedding of Miss Alberta Stein, charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Stein of 210 1/2 East 10th street, and Robert Schwarm, son of the E. A. Schwarms of 1030 North Parton, which will be solemnized October 9 in Spurgeon Memorial church.

Approach of the nuptials has been the motive for a number of recent parties, among which was a lovely courtesy extended to the bride-to-be by her future sister-in-law, Miss Hazel Schwarm, last Friday night at the Schwarm home. Chrysanthemums and Cecil Bruner roses decorated the rooms.

A shower of linen gifts for the bride was the climax of the evening, which was spent informally at games, and a dainty refreshment course brought the affair to a close at a late hour. Prizes in the games were presented to Mrs. Kenneth Miller, who was high, and to Mrs. Larry Cannon, low.

Friends Invited
Enjoying the evening with the bride-to-be and the hostess were the former's mother, and the bridegroom-elect's mother, his grandmother, Mrs. Mae Harwood, and his aunt, Mrs. F. R. Harwood; the Mesdames William Gregg, LeRoy Cannon, Lloyd Kneeland, and the Misses Lucille Cook, Louis Herke, Janice Johnson, Erlene Farmer, Alice Nelson, Barbara Crawford, and Mildred Goodwin, all of Santa Ana; Mrs. C. E. Oleson, Miss Dorothy Oleson, Mrs. Russell Hennigan and Miss Patricia Hennigan, Long Beach; Miss Mary Jane Beasley of Los Angeles, and Miss Violet Rogers of Huntington Beach.

On the previous afternoon, Mrs. Stein, mother of the bride-to-be, also presided at a small courtesy for her daughter, at which time gifts for the bride's new kitchen were presented to Miss Stein. Mrs. W. R. Gordon assisted Mrs. Stein in serving dainty rosebud cakes, sandwiches, and tea on colored pottery at the close of an afternoon of Hollywood bridge, and the gifts were then opened by the honored guest in the flower-decked living room.

Present at this earlier party were Mrs. Schwarm, mother of the bridegroom-elect; Mrs. Mae Harwood, Mrs. E. R. Pollard of Los Angeles, Miss Stein's grandmother; Mrs. Otto Hartfield of Huntington Park, Miss Mary Jane Beasley of Los Angeles, Mrs. Tom Fishner of Tustin, the Mesdames LeRoy Levens, Alex Clark, Frank Besser, Jim Brown, Alta Woods,

Wedding Held at Local Chapel

In a ceremony of quiet simplicity Friday evening at the Santa Ana Wedding chapel, and attended by two of their close friends, Miss Helen L. Gemberling and J. Milan Kennedy, both well known Orange county residents, were united in marriage by the Rev. Mr. Earl C. Bloss.

The marriage service was read at 6 o'clock, the bride choosing as her wedding costume a suit of postman's blue shade with black accessories. Her attendant, Mrs. John L. Upson, wore a modish suit of dark blue with matching accessories, and both had corsage bouquets of gardenias. John Upson attended the bridegroom as best man.

Dine at Palomar
After the ceremony, the two couples motored to Los Angeles for dinner at the Palomar, where Mr. Kennedy had arranged a pleasant surprise for his new bride. As they entered the dining room, the orchestra, led by Phil Harris, a friend of the couple, struck up the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march; and upon arriving at the table reserved by Mr. Kennedy, centered with red and white pom-pom dahlias and maiden hair fern, the bride was surprised to find 10 of their friends waiting there to join them in an evening of dining and dancing.

Participating in the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy were Mr. and Mrs. John L. Upson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Munro, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Wilson, and Miss Alda Weaver, all of Santa Ana; Miss Dorothy Carlson, Clifford Hall, and Kenneth Gordon, of Balboa Beach. Mr. Kennedy's brother, James Kennedy, who is associated with Everett Hoagland's orchestra, joined the party for a period during the evening.

When the party broke up at a late hour, Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy left for a short honeymoon trip, the destination of which was not revealed. They will be at home to their friends in the near future at 1735 East Central avenue, Balboa Beach.

With Telephone Company
Mrs. Kennedy is a graduate of Santa Ana High school and has been employed at the Southern California Telephone company for the past 10 years, where she has the position of P. B. X. instructor. Mr. Kennedy, a member of the Newport Beach police department, is a graduate of Pasadena schools.

Among the parties preceding the wedding was a surprise bridal shower given last Tuesday evening by Miss Alda V. Weaver and Mrs. Earl E. Wilson at the latter's home, 895 Bush street, with Mrs. Kennedy, then Miss Gemberling, as honored guest.

Early in the evening, the bride-to-be was presented with an ivory colored recipe book in which each guest had pasted a snapshot of herself together with her favorite recipe. Hollywood bridge followed, with prizes at the close going to Mrs. Robert R. Munro, who received a small, hand-wrought candle holder and candle as first prize, to the honored guest, who won a package of novelty stationery for second high, and to Mrs. Upson, who received consolation prize, a kitchen hand towel made and embroidered by Mrs. Wilson.

Pottery Shower
Just prior to the refreshment hour, Miss Gemberling was presented with a set of Franciscan pottery in yellow and turquoise, a gift from the assembled guests and the others who were unable to attend. When this had been opened and examined, card tables were spread with embroidered linens, and little ice cream heart molds were served with ice box cookies and coffee.

Those invited to share the happy affair with the two hostesses and the honored guest were Mrs. George Schroder, Mrs. Robert Munro, Miss Dolly Cox, Mrs. John Upson, Mrs. Herbert Smith, all of Santa Ana; Miss Maxine Brand of Orange; Mrs. Ann Arrowsmith of Pasadena; Mrs. Dorothy Owens, Mrs. Rae Griffin, Mrs. Winifred Smith, Mrs. Helen Wilson, Mrs. Florence Collins, Miss Evelyn Shafer, Miss Olive Smith and Miss Glendene Seelman, all of Los Angeles.

AID PLANS DINNER
The Women's Aid society of the Richmond Avenue Methodist Episcopal church will serve a chicken dinner in the church bungalow from 5 to 7 p. m. Thursday. The public is invited.

Frank Cook, G. Venable, L. R. Carey, W. R. Gordon and F. R. Harwood.
Both Miss Stein and Mr. Schwarm have lived here the greater part of their lives, graduating from grammar and high schools in the city.

LAST TIMES TONIGHT
PHONE STATE
MATINEE, 1:45
NIGHTS, 8:15
Richard DIX
DEVIL'S SQUAD
ALSO LITTLE NIZZY NOBODY with JANE WITHERS
A PARAMOUNT PICTURE

WEDNESDAY & THURSDAY
Stranger
DONAT
The ghost goes west with JEAN PARKER
Eugene Pallette
PLUS-A First Run Feature
MARY ELLIS
Fatal Lady
WALTER PIDGEON-John Halliday
A PARAMOUNT PICTURE

THE LAST OF THE MONKIES
RANDOLPH SCOTT
BINNIE BARNES
HENRY WILCOXON
ALSO-
Behind the Scenes of Screendom
Laffs! Melody! Romance!
SITTING ON THE MOON
Mickey's Polo
Rage, PRYOR
Grace BRADLEY in Color
NEWS

Mary Stoddard Tragedy in One Man's Life Brings Help to This Woman's Problem

Invariably when a husband writes in, asking for advice about his marital difficulties, readers respond with advice to his wife!
And, when a wife places her problem here for discussion, many of our trusty correspondents will ignore that plea and start advising her husband. The only thing we can suggest is this: Whenever a husband or wife "confesses" here, they should, in all fairness to themselves and their mates, "confess" in turn to the other and both read the impartial viewpoints of strangers. Such a letter of advice is at hand today to the husband who signed himself, "Seeker of Contentment."

Dear Miss Stoddard: Isn't life a problem, isn't it a million problems? I just finished reading the letter from "Seeker of Contentment" and can truthfully say that if this letter from the host of a man and not just a story of the imagination, it has brought me contentment, for I have been so emotionally upset as to be on the point of suicide for three months now, and could not believe there was a man living who was like the man this letter pictured. What is his tragedy has been my help.

I could not imagine such a wife or woman any more than I could believe in a "good man." Yes, I have been "hit," and hit hard. I was bitter and cynical, driven past all reasoning at injustice. This man says his wife is good looking, a good woman, a mother. He pays her every compliment he can think of doing. Oh, Miss Stoddard, what does this woman want, does she know?

I had a home and I spent 24 hours a day trying to make it a happy, contented home for my husband and my children. My daily thought was what he liked best to eat and what he would like to do best in the evenings. I studied his friends and tried to like them all and to make them welcome and comfortable in our home. I kept myself always looking as he would like his wife to look, and many times was complimented upon my management and home. When he had the idea that "money was needed to make happiness" I stood by him and all through the depression I skipped and saved so that he might say "we are out of debt."

I never did like the climate because it had not been the best for my health, but I stayed where my husband's work was because I knew it was the right thing to do. And after it all, my husband packed up one day while I was out and left the three children and myself with no excuse other than "he wanted to be alone." He thinks money will fill the bill of loving him and the children having him in the home. Here I am, willing to give heart, body and soul to a man who would appreciate me and what I can do, and this woman has everything in the world but "California ranches and a few selfish whims."

I admire you "Seeker of Contentment" for not wanting partying and petting. Maybe you are old-fashioned and maybe I am, but modern times, but I am old-fashioned and not interested in any other woman's husband. Don't get discouraged; you are doing and have done all that any man should do and some of us admire you for it. You cannot get such a woman interested in anything unless she herself wants to be interested. I have been in organization work for 20 years and there is an opening in a dozen different worthwhile things that she could get interested in if she wanted to think about someone besides herself. I do not see how she could read your letter without realizing how little she has helped to keep the home balanced.

Because you have helped me, I hope you find your contentment. A WIFE

HUNTERS HOME FROM THE HILLS

Coming home with a buck and memories of a long string of fish to his credit, Pat Kelly of Tustin has returned from his hunting and fishing trip in the High Sierras, which he was accompanied by Mrs. Kelly and Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Lambert of Tustin, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schleuter, Miss Zilla Kifer and Jack Oakley.

The party found good hunting and fishing in the mountains back of Bishop, and report no damage done when the plane in which Messrs. Kelly and Lambert were traveling was forced down at Inyo-Kern airport by engine trouble.

W. R. C. TEA WEDNESDAY
Sedgwick Women's Relief corps will meet at 2 p. m. Wednesday in M. W. A. hall, the aides planning a silver tea for the concluding hours of the afternoon. A cooked food sale will also be in progress.

Bon Voyage Courtesy Extended

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Barry and Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Norton presided as co-hosts last night at the home of the former, 2321 North Park boulevard, entertaining for Mrs. Charles Boyer who left tomorrow for a trip around the world.

Rooms of the home where the friends gathered were decorated with pink lilies and with bouquets of daisies in mixed shades. The evening's diversion was contract bridge, prizes going to Mrs. Adam Zaiser and Dr. J. E. Paul, as holders of highest scores. When these were presented, a delightful surprise—in the form of a "good-bye" gift—was handed to the guests by the friends of Mrs. Boyer.

The card tables were prepared in a voyage theme for the delicious refreshments served at a late hour, little ships gracing the place cards and tallies, and silver ships sailing on blue mirror centerpieces. Roses and lace doilies completed the appointments.

Guests gathering to wish bon voyage to Mrs. Boyer were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Nau, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Zaiser, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Paul, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Farnsworth, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Liebig, Mr. Boyer, and the four hosts.

MARY NAU VISITS MOTHER

Miss Mary Nau, who is taking post-graduate work this year in her chemistry major at Pomona college, following her graduation there last June, spent the weekend in Santa Ana with her mother, Mrs. Fannie Nau, 206 South Birch street. Mrs. Nau returned recently from a month's stay in Charleston, S. C.

When storing berries, sprinkle them in thin layer on dish and store in cold part of refrigerator. Do not wash them until time for serving as mold is liable to develop if much moisture is present.

WEST COAST
2:00 P. M. ENDS TONITE
KING OF THE ROYAL MOUNTED
ALSO AT 8:30—DOORS OPEN 5:45—STARTS 6 P. M.
Studio Preview
TONITE
ACCOUNT STUDIO RESERVATIONS, COME EARLY
Owing to Length of Program at Broadway Prevue Switched to West Coast
PLEASE NOTE—As a Complete Program Will Be Given Before and After Prevue—NOT SCHEDULED—
Met in Taxi—6:05 - 10:01; Royal Mounted—7:10 - 11:06
March of Time—8:09—Prevue 8:30—News 9:51
COM. TOMORROW—MATINEE 2:00 P. M.—25c
Helen Hunt Jackson's Immortal Romance
Loretta Young
IN RAMONA WITH DON AMECHE
KENT TAYLOR
Pauline FREDERICK
Jane DARWELL
Katherine DeMILLE
All the glory of a love that claimed two hearts forever
The Rainbow Beauty of California in new Technicolor Mystery Thrills Suspense and Laughs
THE LONGEST NIGHT
—ROBERT YOUNG—FLORENCE RICE—TED RAY—JULIE HAYDON—CATHERINE HENRY
MATINEE 25c ALWAYS A GOOD SHOW
2 P. M. ENDS TOMORROW
BROADWAY
PHONE 300
THUNDERING WITH THRILLS!
JAMES FENIMORE COOPER'S Stirring Classic Read by Millions of Americans springs to Exciting Life on the Screen!
THE LAST OF THE MONKIES
RANDOLPH SCOTT
BINNIE BARNES
HENRY WILCOXON
ALSO-
Behind the Scenes of Screendom
Laffs! Melody! Romance!
SITTING ON THE MOON
Mickey's Polo
Rage, PRYOR
Grace BRADLEY in Color
NEWS

Dandruff Enemy To Lovely Hair

By CLAUDE N. CHRISMAN, M.D.

Baldness, general or local, is to a large extent hereditary and is consequently constitutional; or it is due to poor circulation in the scalp, or some diseased condition of the scalp that plugs up or kills the hair follicles. Then the hair falls out, and after many attempts to grow again it finally gives up the ghost.

So, as in other conditions, the only cure is to remove the cause. Barring systemic diseased conditions, the primary cause of loss of hair is dandruff. A mild dandruff is always present, but if allowed to go on and develop into seborrhea, which is an accumulation of dandruff, scales, oil, perspiration, and probably bacteria. This forms a more or less thick crust over the scalp and finally chokes the hair to death.

Cleanliness Important

The treatment of this is intelligent cleanliness. Frequent shampooing, with massage, brushing and combing, with deep pressure to promote sufficient blood flow to the scalp and soften the skin and loosen it from the underlying bone is the basis of treatment.

Soothing, antiseptic, softening lotions or ointments may aid in removing dandruff. These should be prescribed by your physician, who can interpret the local condition and determine the amount of stimulation needed.

The use of tar, resorcin, salicylic acid and other drugs must be carefully guarded or they may cause a dermatitis.

Hats should be worn when exposed to wind, rain and sun. The hat should be light in weight, not tight enough to make pressure and impede circulation and be well ventilated.

Too prolonged sunshine bleaches the hair, dries it out and makes hair brittle. Good general health is absolutely necessary if we are to have a fine head of hair.

Ordinary vaseline rubbed into the scalp, with massage, vigorous and thorough, followed by ultra violet ray treatment, if persisted in for six months is often successful.

NEW TWIN BILL DUE AT STATE

A comedy that has for its central characters a Scotchman and the ghost of an ancestor holds the feature position on the State theater's movie bill of fare Wednesday and Thursday. The title of the picture is "The Ghost Goes West," starring Robert Donat and Jean Parker.

It recounts the story of how a Scotchman sells his feudal castle to a wealthy American, who carts it off to the United States stone by stone. The Scotchman goes along, and so does the ghost, who causes many a mixup at the wrong time.

Also in the cast are Eugene Pallette, Elsa Lanchester and Evelyn Gregg.

The other picture on the bill is "Fatal Lady," starring Mary Ellis, the singer-actress. She plays the role of an opera star whose fatal charms cause the death of men unfortunate to fall in love with her.

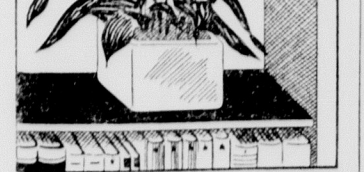

In the cast with her are Walter Pidgeon, John Halliday, Ruth Donnelly, Alan Mowbray, Guy Bates Post, Samuel Hinds, Norman Foster and Edgar Kennedy.

DRIVER ARRESTED

Henry Quintana, 39, truck driver, was rebooked at the county jail Sunday on charges of defrauding a hotel keeper. He had been serving a sentence for non-support.

Home Service

Easy-to-Raise Plants Brighten Your House

What a jolly friend the aspidistra is! Never fussy, seldom asking attention, this lovely green foliage plant lives dark corners.

No wonder it's called "iron plant." It thrives in spite of darkness, dust, smoke, gas fumes, drought, drafts. Aspidistra is a rapid grower, too. You can divide a plant bought now into several plants in the spring. The only luxury this hardy plant really enjoys is an occasional leaf bath. Shower the foliage with water and watch it grow glossy.

Make your house gay and cheerful this winter with easy-to-raise indoor plants. Our 32-page booklet tells how to plant, water, repot, ward off pests. All about forcing bulbs, raising vines from sweet potatoes and feathery foliage from carrots, horseradish and parsnips. How to make fascinating dish gardens, too.

Send 10c for your copy of "Making Plants and Flowers Grow Indoors" to The Journal, Home Service, 117 East Fifth St. Be sure to write plainly your name, address, and the name of booklet.

Variety Is the Style Note for Autumn Furs

Swagger coats of fur, such as the black caracul at left, show the variety this winter is the princess model, shown at right in black sport trend in modes for fall. The leopard (center) offers a similar caracul with slim fitted waist and slightly flared skirt line. Variety design in straighter lines of rigid simplicity. Also scheduled for pop-in treatment of pelts also features winter offerings.

Meet Your Neighbor

The Journal's Compilation of Orange County People You Should Know.

Name: Richard W. Harvey.

Occupation: Retired, U. S. Army.

Home Address: 1339 West Washington Avenue.

When and where were you born? Santa Fe Springs, California.

What is your hobby? Kidding Skinny Skirvin.

What is the hardest task you ever encountered? Converting "Blondie" Meister to rationalism.

What career offers the greatest opportunity to young men and women? Scientific research.

What bit of news has interested you most recently? Revolution.

If you were editor of The Journal, what one change would you make in the paper? More world news.

What do you like best in The Journal? Editorial page.

What one thing would help Santa Ana most? What bit of effort in all lines by all factions.

What in your judgment is the most important problem facing the world today? Why? World-wide intolerance. Causes international and class fear and hatred.

City Council Doings in Brief

Last night the city council: Granted permission to B. E. Hartpence, blind dealer in musical merchandise, to conduct his business at his home, 1070 West Third street, instead of at its present location, 314 1/2 W. Fourth.

Called a hearing for Oct. 5 on request of H. J. Succop to establish a fruit and flavoring and extract plant at 2650 North Main street, on recommendation of the planning commission.

Accepted an invitation to attend the next meeting of Orange County League of Municipalities, to be held at the Social clubhouse, San Clemente, on Sept. 24.

Received a letter from Sol Gonzalez thanking the city for its cooperation in the celebration of Mexican Independence day.

Filed without action a request of the state division of parks that the council endorse the so-called tideland drilling bill.

Granted the American Legion post a free permit for the Craft show Nov. 10 to 14 for performances on the Union Pacific lot.

Granted free use of the Municipal bowl for the Passion Play, at request of the Elks club.

Allowed posting of Community Chest placards on city lighting standards.

Authorized D. P. Hildreth to install a sign over the setback line on West First street, on his agreement that the sign will be moved if the street is widened.

Adopted an ordinance allowing the council to designate the space allotted to taxi stands.

Recommended to the city museum board that Bowers Memorial museum be kept open on Sundays for the benefit of those who are unable to visit it on other days.

Townsend Clubs

Frank Kendall will address an important meeting of Club No. 3 at the club's headquarters, 509 West Fourth street, it was announced today. The session is scheduled for 7:30 p. m. Thursday.

About Folks

News of Your Family and Friends Is Important. The Journal Welcomes It. Telephone 3600

FLOWERS

For the Living

TODAY, a bouquet to: THE REV. M. E. JOHNSON and MRS. JOHNSON, who recently were given a reception by members of the United Brethren church in the church parlor, honoring them on the return of the Rev. Mr. Johnson for another year as pastor of the church.

Accompanied by her father, John C. Wallace of 1621 Spurgeon street, Miss Mary Wallace will leave Tuesday for Palo Alto, where she will enter Stanford university as a junior. Miss Wallace was graduated from Santa Ana Junior college last June, winning a Stanford scholarship at the close of the year.

Rolland H. McCalla, 423 South Flower street, Santa Ana, is reported recovering from an ankle injury he suffered last week on a WPA sewer project at Tustin, of which he is project foreman.

Sheriff Logan Jackson and Mrs. Jackson left yesterday for Lake Arrowhead, where they plan to spend part of their two-week vacation.

Director Charles Fallert of the National Re-employment service, is expected to return Wednesday from a trip to San Francisco.

Dr. J. H. Pullin, 1806 North Broadway, has returned from a 10-day hunting trip in the vicinity of Elsinore. Doves are plentiful, he reports, but gun-shy.

Miss Roberta Tuthill will motor north Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Tuthill of 2035 Victoria drive, and enroll at Stanford university this year, following attendance last year at Mount St. Mary's in Indiana. After leaving her daughter at Palo Alto, the Tuthills will go on to Portland to visit Mr. Tuthill's mother.

Miss Helen I. Klein left today for a trip to her former home in Indianapolis, Ind., planning to stop also in Chicago.

Mary Genevieve Boyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Boyd of 210 South Broadway, who was operated on for appendicitis at St. Joseph's hospital last week, is reported to be doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Reihle and daughter, Elaine, have returned to their home in northeastern Iowa after spending the past two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Glenn L. Cramer of Bay View tract. Mr. Reihle is Mrs. Cramer's brother.

Mrs. E. F. Mueus of 2111 North Ross street has received word of the death Sept. 16, in St. John's, New Brunswick, Canada, of Mrs. F. H. Nichols, who has visited for the past two winters at her home here and who has many friends in this city. Mr. Nichols is also reported to be seriously ill at a hospital in St. John's.

Mrs. J. A. George of 2433 North Park boulevard is reported quite ill at Loma Linda hospital, where she was taken several days ago. She is unable to see her friends.

C. J. Skirvin went to Long Beach and Los Angeles today to look after business interests.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Sprague are spending a month at Balboa Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Williams are attending the American Bankers convention this week in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Mills and daughter, Martha May, and son, Charles, of 1069 West First street, returned home Sunday from a week's vacation in the Valley of the Moon.

CHECK CHARGE

W. P. Bouvier, 35, Bakersfield oil worker, was awaiting trial on a fictitious check charges in the county jail today. He was surrendered by a bonding company to San Clemente police officers.

JOINS EDITORIAL STAFF

LAURENCE B. C. Donald, White, Laguna Beach newspaper man, has joined the editorial staff of the South Coast News.

Tonight and Tomorrow

TONIGHT

Elks Lodge No. 794, clubhouse, 7:30 p. m.

Santa Ana Bethel, Job's Daughters, Masonic temple, 7:30 p. m.

Wrycende Maegdon, dinner meeting, Y. W. C. A., 6:15 p. m.

Twenty-Third club, Green Cat, 6:30 p. m.

Calumpp, camp and auxiliary, U. S. W. Y. K. of C. hall, 7:30 p. m.

Franklin P. T. A., school kindergarten, 7:30 p. m.

Carpenters Union, No. 1515, 402 West Fourth street, 7:30 p. m.

Lincoln P. T. A., school, 7:30 p. m.

Forum for Political and Economic Education, Junior college, 7:30 p. m.

Spurgeon P. T. A., school, 7:30 p. m.

La Musica Choral Symphony rehearsal, First Methodist church, 7:45 p. m.

Willard P. T. A., school library, 7:30 p. m.

Women of Moose, Moose hall, 8 p. m.

M. W. A., M. W. A. hall, 8 p. m.

Townsend old-time dance, Palms ballroom, 8 p. m.

Executive board of the Legion auxiliary meets at home of Mrs. Robert Sandon.

Job's Daughters initiation, Masonic temple, 7:30 p. m.

U. S. W. V. potluck dinner, K. C. hall.

TOMORROW

County W. C. T. U. convention, Adventist church, Tustin, starts 10 a. m.

Martha Washington club luncheon, 12:30 p. m., 210 East Hobart.

D. A. V. auxiliary sewing circle, 917 Louise street, covered dish luncheon.

Kiwanis club, Green Cat cafe, 12:30 p. m.

P. T. A. Mother Singers, Lincoln school, 1:45 p. m.

C. A. R. M. W. A. hall, 2 p. m.

Sedgewick Women's Relief corps, M. W. A. hall, 2 p. m.

Job's Daughters Mothers club, 12:30 potluck luncheon, 313 Normandie street.

St. Elizabeth's guild of Episcopal church, parish hall, 7:30 p. m.

N. G. W. K. of C. hall, 7:30 p. m.

Congregational church rally dinner, church, 6:30 p. m.

Torosa Rebekah, I. O. O. F. hall, 8 p. m.

Santa Ana Scouts, 8 p. m.

Toastmasters club, 8 p. m.

Knights Templar, commandary, No. 36, Masonic temple, 7:30 p. m.

TRI-Y GIRLS HAVE PARTY

The Tri-Y Girl Reserves opened their fall season last night with a gay party-meeting to which they had invited all new sophomores and students of Santa Ana High school.

Games and stunts were enjoyed, and Miss Mary Porter, secretary of the Girl Reserves, made a short talk. The meeting was concluded with dancing and refreshments.

Miss Betty Neff, president, welcomed the new girls. Those Girl Reserves who helped plan the evening were Mackie Knight, membership chairman, Barbara Rowell, invitations; Norma Area and Helen Crowther, decorations; Helen Hicks and Thelma Lambert, refreshments; Betty Frye, Gerry Peck, Helen Rowell, Muriel Engleke and Jackie Morrison, entertainment; and Marjorie Vollmer, Jessie Wilkey, Phyllis Kroek and Audrey Barnes, devotional.

Warm Olive Oil Shampoo Tones Scalp

By JACQUELINE HUNT

The girl with hair that is always becomingly arranged and which looks soft to the touch, is sleek and healthy week in and week out, is the one who has learned to give her hair the proper care between visits to the beauty shop.

She knows that daily brushing and the proper scalp treatments will do more to keep her hair lovely than the most complete weekly treatment.

Your home treatments are not difficult.

For the hot oil shampoo that you should have at least once a month, you simply warm olive oil or a mixture of castor oil, olive oil and a few drops of your pine bath oil and massage it into your scalp. Any what is left can be worked into the ends of your hair and down the length of the strands. The oil should be applied as night if possible, then a clean towel pinned around your head and left until morning when you shampoo.

Brushing is a nightly operation and an important one if you want to keep your topknot sleek and healthy.

If you always do your own shampooing, you will be interested in some of the new type "soapless" shampoos. You massage the heavy oily substance into your scalp and the ends of your hair, then dip in your wash bowl of warm water. Since the oil is water soluble it makes a thick foamy lather in either hard or soft water.

Buy Shoulder Of Lamb

By JUDITH WILSON

Lamb shoulder is inexpensive but delicious and adaptable to many variations that the family will enjoy with fall dinners. Here is one not generally known that will be interesting to try:

Lamb en Brochette

Have the fat removed from shoulder of lamb and cut the meat into 1 1/2 inch cubes. Alternate pieces of lamb, slices of small, firm tomatoes, onion slices and squares of bacon on skewers. Preheat the broiler oven and place the skewers of lamb and tomato in a shallow baking pan. Broil until nicely browned on all sides and the meat is done. The skewers may be laid on triangles of buttered toast or the meat may be slipped off onto a bed of buttered rice as you wish.

HERMOSA O. E. S. CHAPTER TO MARK BIRTHDAY

The 48th birthday anniversary of Hermosa chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will be celebrated by members of the organization on Oct. 5, when they will gather at the Masonic temple for an old-fashioned party and dinner.

This was announced last night by Miss Henrietta Bohling, worthy matron, and Wilfred Lewis, worthy patron, who conducted initiation ceremonies previous to a business session. New members are Priscilla Hope Sundstrum and Cora Lee Sherman.

A short program consisted of several musical selections by Pearl Livezey, accompanied by Mame Y. Havens, and an address by Jeanette Tarpley, deputy grand matron, who will be honored with a reception given by Hermosa chapter this coming Saturday at the Masonic temple.

The refreshment table was colorfully decorated with yellow tapers and baskets of yellow and white dahlias. Those serving included Jeannette Mohler, chairman; Clara McCord, Lula Moore, Luella Mosher, Fanny Nau, Myrtle Osborn, Minnie Harris and Inez Currie.

The reception committee of the evening consisted of Belle Neighbour, Lois Ostermann, Katie Barker, Ida Dunphy, Minna Atkinson, and Dr. John Wehrly.

Guests of the chapter were Carl B. Lowe, Odessa, Ind.; Nellie Odell, Indianapolis, Ind.; Mary Cooper, Eden, Ind.; Grace Heinie, Des Moines, Iowa; Madeline Parker, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Arch Fellers and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Burnett, Long Beach.

LUNCHEON FOR DEMOCRATIC WOMAN LEADER

Women of Orange county who favor re-election of President Roosevelt are invited to meet Lucetta Del Valle Grady, California Democratic committeewoman, and attend a luncheon in her honor at 12:45 p. m. Friday in the Laguna Beach hotel.

Reservations must be made by Thursday and are being taken by Mrs. Claudia Worswick, phone 769-W.

LITERARY GROUP TO OPEN YEAR

Under the guidance of its new leader, Mrs. Henry Williams, the Thursday evening literary section of Elbel club will meet at 7:30 p. m. Thursday at the home of Mrs. Milo Tedstrom, 2215 North Flower street. Mrs. Ernest Crozier Phillips will give the review.

Mrs. Tedstrom will be assisted in her hostess duties by Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Jack Bascom.

FLOWER CLIPS SMART

PARIS (AP)—The newest belt buckles and clips are shaped like calla lilies. They are made of gold metal with the lily's thick center spike in red coral.

PANHELLENIC TO HAVE PARTY NEXT TUESDAY

Panhellenic's 1936-37 season will be officially opened next Tuesday evening at the dessert bridge planned by members of the executive board in the Elbel clubhouse lounge at 7:30 o'clock. Officers will be hostesses, and a cordial invitation is extended to all girls and young women eligible for membership. Those who do not receive cards are asked to get in touch with Mrs. Victor Hupp.

Plans for the affair and for the annual dance which will be held Dec. 26, were made last night at a board meeting held at the home of Miss Ruth Bradley, the treasurer, 902 Cypress street. Present were Mrs. Warren Fletcher, the president; Mrs. George Spielman, vice president; Mrs. Paul Gilbert, secretary; Miss Bradley, Mrs. William Stauffer, historian; Mrs. Hupp, membership chairman; Mrs. Clarence Hoiles, courtesy chairman, and Mrs. Marion Hill, publicity chairman.

Formation of a recent graduate group for younger Panhellenic members is being discussed, and will be sponsored by Mrs. Velma Sundquist if enough members sign up for this new club.

The business meeting last evening was brought to a close with a social hour during which Miss Bradley served refreshments to her guests.

BIRTHDAY AND WELCOME HOME INSPIRE PARTY

Coming home from her Iowa trip just the day before her birthday, Mrs. C. M. Featherly was honored Sunday night at a birthday dinner in her home on North Ross street, where members of her family assembled to help her celebrate the occasion.

A beautiful flower bouquet, a gift from Mrs. Featherly's daughter, Mrs. Norman Paul, centered the table at which places were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Paul, Mrs. Mayme Homan and Mr. and Mrs. Featherly; and the birthday cake which did the honors of the day was one baked by the honored guest's sister and brought back with her from her recent trip to Humboldt, Iowa.

Mrs. Featherly arrived home Saturday morning, after a three weeks' visit with her sister, who had been ill and whom she found greatly improved. Rain fell every day during her visit. Mrs. Featherly reports, and several electric storms also marked her stay.

1933 MATRONS ENTERTAINED

Mrs. George Shipe, who in 1933 served as worthy matron of Santa Ana chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star, entertained other 1933 matrons of Orange county yesterday at a prettily arranged one o'clock luncheon in her home, 633 North Van Ness, where guests at small tables centered with orchid and yellow pompon dahlias.

Several pleasant hours of visiting and sewing followed the luncheon, and members of the group decided to meet next on October 12 at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Kilgore in Buena Park.

Those enjoying Mrs. Shipe's hospitality this week were Mrs. Thelma Vanderleek of Norwalk, Mrs. Kilgore of Buena Park, Mrs. Ruth Gregg of Anaheim, Mrs. Inez Brown of Brea, Mrs. Inez Orton of Huntington Beach, Mrs. Elita Chapman and Mrs. Elsie Gillogly of Orange, Mrs. Mabel Doig of Garden Grove, Mrs. Marion Wallace and the hostess of Santa Ana, all members of the club, and Mrs. Dorothy French, 1933 matron of Ontario chapter, now living in this city, and Miss Allie Ames, an Eastern Star visitor from Sioux City, Iowa.

G. R. COUNCIL TO MEET TOMORROW

The first meeting of the Girl Reserves committee of the local Y. W. C. A. will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3:15 at the home of Mrs. K. H. Sutherland, committee chairman, 2424 Riverside Drive.

Miss Mary Porter will give a report on summer activities and plans for the fall program, and Mrs. Clyde Downing will report on the co-ordinating council meeting, to which she is a representative. The work of the Girl Reserve committee will be outlined by Mrs. Sutherland, and a report on Community Chest organization will be given by Miss Lena Thomas.

Members of the committee include Miss Thomas, Mrs. Downing, Mrs. Sutherland, Mrs. Glen Tibbal, Mrs. Hubert Nalle, Mrs. Quentin Matzen, Mrs. C. S. Peck, Mrs. Grace Lund, Mrs. W. B. Hellis, Miss Nora Reid and Miss Mary Porter.

X. N. O. CLUB SHOWERS TWO

Birthdays of Mrs. M. O. Johnson and Mrs. E. E. Perry were honored by X. N. O. club members at their recent meeting at the home of Mrs. W. L. Harbert on South Broadway, the members showering each with dainty towels as birthday gifts.

The afternoon was spent sewing, with refreshments served at the close of one long table spread with a lace cloth.

Present at the gathering were the Mesdames B. A. Hershey, A. R. Bennett, E. E. Edwards, W. O. Edwards, W. L. Harbert, M. O. Johnson, E. E. Lentz, R. A. McPhee, E. E. Perry, H. R. Trott. The next meeting will be at the Hershey home, 2014 South Barton street.

W. P. A. Worker Talks to Clubwomen

All unemployed people should register at the National Re-employment Agency bureau in the opinion of Mrs. Josephine Hearle, adjustment supervisor for Orange county WPA, who last night addressed the Business and Professional Women's club of Santa Ana on the subject of her work and of "Work Opportunities for Women."

Seven hundred and five women are now on work projects, according to the figures given in her interesting talk, and 508 of these are in the sewing project. Other departments in which women are now working are the nursery school, the recreational project, library work, historical research, vocabulary study, consumers' research, clerical work, and an average of 40 to 60 placements are made each week, Mrs. Hearle stated.

Adjustment Work

Only women who have worked previously in some line are handled now by the WPA, Mrs. Hearle pointed out, and all must go through her adjustment department, where attempt is made first to put them into work of their own field, unless some reason makes this unfeasible, and in that case to fit them into others to which their training can be adapted.

One of the purposes of the Works Program, she explained, is to provide opportunities for these women not only to support

MODEST MAIDENS

"My boy-friend started out on a fortune and wound up with a shoe-string."

THE ADVENTURES OF PATSY

CROSSWORD PUZZLE

Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

ACROSS
1. Vast or cistern
4. Precious stone
8. Exclamation
12. Daughter of Cadmus
13. Excellent
14. Infrequently encountered
15. Units of weight
17. Eternity
18. Flower
19. That which inspires spirit and confidence
22. Salamander
23. Pedal digits
24. Cried
25. East Indian weight
28. Pronoun
29. Knack
31. Foreign
32. Shoe latchet
33. Persons addressed
34. Kind of nut
35. Mute
36. Once more
37. Take up weapons
38. Absolutely necessary
44. Extinct bird

DOWN
1. Ireland
11. Direction
16. Not hard
20. Guido's lowest note
21. Pertaining to the dawn
24. Course
25. Before
26. Instrument for concentrating and increasing heat
27. Manner
28. Kind of meat
29. Flow back
31. Tennis points won by service strokes
32. Felt
34. Negative ions
35. Dull odor
36. Totaled
37. Symbol for arsenic
38. Object of intense devotion
39. View star
40. View
41. Short sleeps
42. Theater box
43. English school abbr.

FRITZI RITZ

What's the Story?

By ERNIE BUSHMILLER

OAKY DOAKS

By R. B. FULLER

THE GAY THIRTIES

By HANK BARROW

JOE PALOOKA

So What?

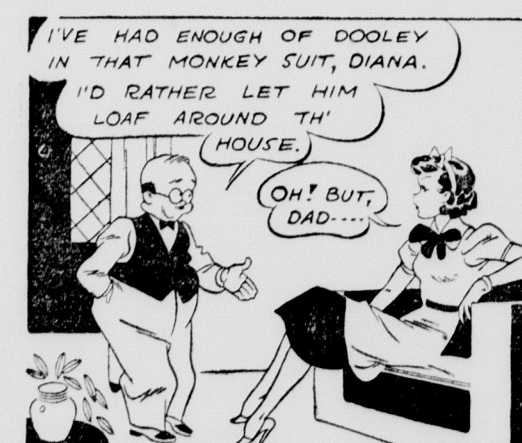

By HAM FISHER

OH, DIANA

Publicity

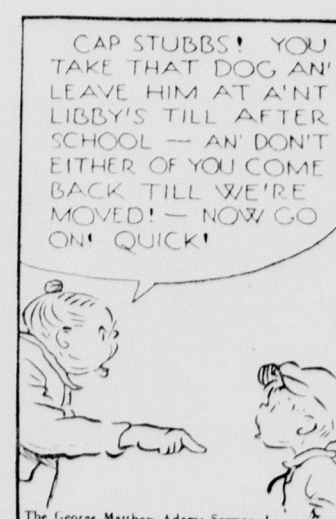

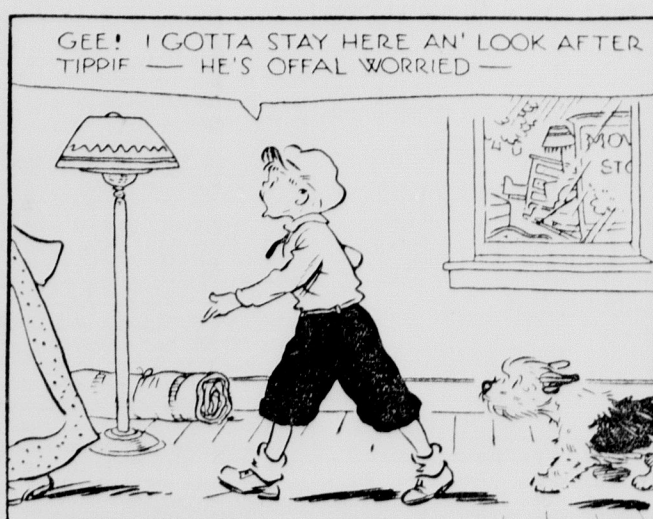

By DON FLOWERS

"CAP" STUBBS

Moving Day

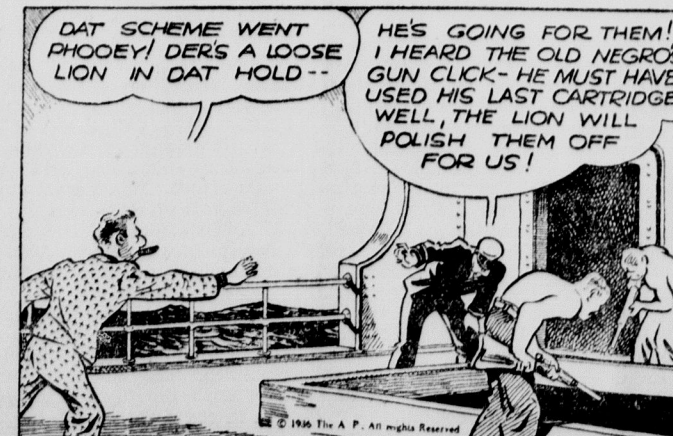

By EDWINA

DICKIE DARE

Tiny Steps In

By COULTON WAUGH

Strength alone knows conflict; weakness is below even defeat, and is born vanquished.
—Mad. Swetchine.

Vol. 2, No. 124

EDITORIAL PAGE

September 22, 1936

This newspaper stands for a reunited people, for independence in all things political, and for honest journalism in its news and editorial columns.

Santa Ana Journal

Published daily except Sunday by Santa Ana Journal, Inc., at 117 E. Fifth street, Santa Ana, Calif. E. F. Eifert, president and business manager; Braden Finch, vice president and editor.

Subscription rates: By mail, $6 a year; by carrier, 50 cents a month; from newsboys and news stands, 2 cents a copy. Entered as second-class matter May 1, 1935, at the postoffice at Santa Ana, California, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to it in this paper, and also the local news published here.

National advertising representative: West-Holiday-Mogensen Co., Inc., New York, 21 East 40th street; Chicago, 399 N. Michigan avenue; San Francisco, 220 Bush street; Detroit, 304 West Grand boulevard; Los Angeles, 433 S. Spring street; Seattle, 603 Stewart street; Portland, 530 S. W. Sixth avenue; St. Louis, 411 N. Tenth street. Copies of The Journal may be secured at any of these offices, where full data regarding the Santa Ana market may be had.

Silver Trophy for best editorial page in California given by State Chamber of Commerce to The Journal.

Not by Bread Alone

POLITICS and selfishness are being sent on a vacation in Santa Ana as dozens of men and women mobilize in a public-spirited army to conduct the Community Chest campaign. The goal this year is $35,656. The drive will be from Oct. 5 to 10.

The Community Chest idea, you know, has become nationwide. All over America this and next month people are pooling their resources to relieve those forms of distress which are not and cannot be touched by the official relief agencies.

The Chest deserves fullest support. And since times are better, donations should be bigger this year. As a matter of fact, the need is actually greater; for while the government's expenditures have aided the needy so far as food and shelter are concerned, there is a vast stretch of social, medical and spiritual needs that are not covered.

Santa Ana has its full share of the 10,000,000-odd unemployed and of the other millions who dwell in the economic borderland where clinics, nursing, recreation and character-building facilities are lacking.

These people do not live by bread alone. They need the demonstration of brotherly love which still can come only from the voluntary kindness and help of neighbors.

A deep-sea fish with illuminated "portholes" has been found off the African coast. We are all familiar with the sucker, however, who is illuminated occasionally.

Laurels for County Man

WITH CROP insurance being proposed by both President Roosevelt and Nominee Landon, it looks as if T. B. Talbert of Huntington Beach is really getting somewhere after a 12-year campaign for this special form of farm relief.

Back in 1924, Mr. Talbert, who is known all over Southern California for his activity in civic affairs and agriculture, conceived the idea that the farmer should protect his crop against market loss by insurance just like he safeguards his house and barn against fire loss.

The result of his thinking was development of a national insurance plan for farm products. Gradually the idea spread over the nation among agricultural leaders—and now that the titular heads of both the Democratic and Republican parties are seriously considering—the Huntington Beach sage has the satisfaction of seeing his brain-child reach national heights.

Orange county and Orange county men have contributed a lot to the national welfare. Mr. Talbert's crop insurance plan adds to the total.

A good person to carve the turkey at family dinners is the golfer who always gets a big slice in his drives.

Colonel Knox Pours It On

COLONEL KNOX, the vocal siege gun of the G. O. P. campaign, fired a barrage of high-explosive words into the New Deal trenches at Los Angeles last night which must have turned the defenders pale.

Among the descriptive words and phrases in the bombardment were: ruinous policies, wild-eyed radical, economic delirium tremens, whirling dervish performance, Fascist regimentation, quicksands of insolvency and inflation, class hate and strife, destruction of wealth, haywire, disaster and bankruptcy.

The Colonel really gave Webster's Unabridged such a workout as it never had. It is quite obvious that the vice presidential nominee talks on the theory that denunciation of the New Deal will get him into office. And if his supply of verbal ammunition doesn't run out before Nov. 3—the country may have to elect him in self-defense.

Because a Polish family objected, Australia zoo officials changed a bear's name from "Kosciusko" to "Polar," but it still seems named after a Pole.

Plugging Up the Holes

COMMUNIST propaganda among Orange county ranch workers will get a body blow if employers fall in line with the suggestion of Santa Ana veterans organizations that jobs be given only to American citizens or to aliens who have taken out first citizenship papers.

Ten times as much damage is done by agitators who work quietly in the fields and packing houses as by soap box fanatics who spout off at labor meetings and in public squares. And since many of these agitators are aliens who have no intention of becoming naturalized citizens, a good way to discourage them is by refusing them jobs.

When a ship is leaking, the most effective method to stop the water is to go down below deck and plug up the holes.

Robert James, the "rattlesnake murderer," says he will face hanging with courage. He has had seven wives.

More New Cars This Year

IF ANYBODY tells you that business is being ruined and that times are not better—just refer them to California's new car registrations. Last July they totaled 25,097, an increase of 36.6 per cent over the 1935 July total of 18,373.

The United States, as a whole, showed a nice gain, too,—with 357,490 registered as against 285,178 for July a year ago. When the old bus wears out, get in the swim and buy a new one

Whimsies of O. O. McIntyre

O. O. McIntyre

The unpredictable Gene Fowler never fails to have his go-native twirl at Fire Island. There in a primitive shack he spends weeks of solitude. A way from people, telephone, typewriter. Only his wife and children are with him. He is utterly paternal. Takes whole days to arrange a meal for them.

Upon arriving at Fire Island he dons shorts and, so habited, Robinson Crusoes his niche of the island. It may be that in this cloister he thinks up many pranks and those privately circulated and pishish poems that crack the blascosity of his adopted Hollywood.

Fowler, an innocent-eyed worldling, is spangled with more legends than any journalist of his time. Like so many other crack writers, he had his editorial genesis in Denver. The Denver of Ford Frick and Damon Runyon. More than most scribers, Fowler changes his pace.

One year he may author a novel or biography. The next punch the clock in a cinema studio and next occupy an executive chair in a news room. Whatever his job, he performs it with gusto and manages to leave along the trail salty reminiscences for the yarn spinners.

Irvin Cobb, who trekked to Hollywood by way of experiment, seems definitely lost to the New York to which he came so wide-eyed out of Paducah to win fame as an author, humorist and after-dinner speaker. His cooperative apartment and home at Easthampton are on the market. His dip into the movies netted him a long time contract and his daughter Buff has also moved to the west coast to perform scenario chores. Mrs. Cobb's improved health in California sunshine is also a contributing factor in the permanent choice.

We were discussing The Cautious Souls in Harry Burton's oriental ruggid dugout. Faith Baldwin told of the ship steward who would cough outside the cabin door, "I'm getting ready to knock," and then gently rat-a-tat. Dick Berlin's choice was the Bobby near London Parliament Houses who was asked just how much the bell in Big Ben weighed. He answered an estimate in tons but added: "Mind, I shouldn't care to be quoted." Then the Bobby that Frazier Hunt asked about a good breakfast place, who shook his head and said he was not allowed to "recommend."

The London attitude is to Americans always a bit screwy. Russ Cole, the cartoonist, was once buying a hat in Piccadilly and was down to a choice between two grays and, with one on his head and the other in his hand, turned from the glass to the salesman for an opinion. He intoned: "If you ask me, I'd take the other—in that one you look like over-hatted. Mind, though, I shan't be wearing either of them, 'self."

And there was that time at the horseshoe entrance to the Savoy that George Ade, as I recall, whacked a fellow on the back with a wham and "Bill, you old son of a gun, what are you doing over here?" The pounce, coughing and replacing his bridge work, turned around and disclosed he was not the friend at all but a strange Englishman. Ade craved pardon, adding he had simply mistaken him for a friend. "It's quite all right," said the Englishman, "but does your friend care for that sort of thing?"

I've seen many plays shucked of realism by a player writing a note. Always it is a phoney gesture to the audience. No ink, no actual writing. Only William H. Crane gave it reality. And it's pleasing to hear from an old stage manager that Crane demanded a workable pen, real ink and every note he wrote could be easily read afterward, correctly punctuated and all.

All of which reminds me it takes a superb actor to put over convincingly: "I love you!" Near—yet not quite—as the great and monodoid Deitrichstein.

Another love slant: At an all fresco estaminet edging the Arc on Champs Elysees, with chestnuts afloat, one soft spring evening we sat next table to a middle aged American and his middle aged wife. He seemed caught in the Paris rapture that so magically rolls back the years and makes Romeos of all. I caught fragments. The orchestra struck up and when I heard him again he was in growl over the service and would be glad to get back to the pancakes and a copy of the Chicago Tribune.

(Copyright, 1936)

Science News

A small precision oiler, which looks like a fountain pen, is used to reach places that are inaccessible to the ordinary oil can. Pressure on the steel point releases a drop of oil wherever it is needed. The new oiler is leakproof and has a pocket clip, like a fountain pen, for carrying. It is used for typewriters and other small pieces of machinery.

EVERYDAY MOVIES

By Denys Wortman

MOPEY DICK AND THE DUKE
"These fellows ruin it for a man who has to pay rent for his shoe-parlor. Take me, for instance. I'd rather pay ten cents—not that I ever get a shine."

The Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

(Editor's note: During a brief vacation for Drew Pearson and Robert S. Allen, their daily column is being written by guest stars. Today's is by Fiorello H. La Guardia, mayor of New York City and former congressman.)

By FIORELLO H. LA GUARDIA
Mayor of New York City

NEW YORK—It has been said that the column is to journalism what opera is to grand opera. If that is so, then Pearson and Allen are the Gilbert and Sullivan of journalism. Their daily Merry-Go-Round is a constant source of joy to some and of worry to others. Every morning officials in Washington fretfully turn to the Merry-Go-Round page.

Being a guest columnist today for the Merry-Go-Round is a delight to me. I have been waiting a long time to give Bob and Drew a draught of their own brew.

I'm sure a great many people would like to have the low-down on how they get their stuff. In the first place, they have a great many friends and a wide circle of acquaintances in official Washington. I have heard many damn Allen, but no one really hates him. Drew is the diplomat of the pair. A great team it is, too, as different as two people can be.

Hatton W. Sumners, the serious chairman of the judiciary committee of the house, once said to them, after reading a Merry-Go-Round column containing inside information of his own committee:

"I don't know which of these two fellows got this story. I can't make up my mind which of the two I like. I do know that I don't like one of them. If I could only take the two and scramble them together, I think we would have one fellow that I'd like."

That is just it. It so happens that the "inside story" was something that Hatton Sumners was keeping all to himself.

UNIQUE TECHNIQUE

Let me tell you about their unique technique. The boys work hard. They are here, there and everywhere. They seldom appear together. That's not part of the act. Pearson is a recognized authority on our foreign affairs. Where he gets all the state department dope, no one seems to know. All are in agreement that what he says on foreign affairs is correct, only often it is told too soon, much to the chagrin of the protocolists.

I once charged Pearson with having an "affair" with one of the charwomen who clean out the waste paper baskets of the state department offices in the early hours of the morning. That is all very safe accusation to make. For Pearson is quite a ladies' man, as the nobility of the czars' Russia and all points west will vouch for. Pearson was not shocked at my charge at all. He simply answered, "No, that would do no good. Those gals can't read."

They do the good brother act. Bob Allen is a recognized authority on our foreign affairs. Where he gets all the state department dope, no one seems to know. All are in agreement that what he says on foreign affairs is correct, only often it is told too soon, much to the chagrin of the protocolists.

argument instead of an interview, especially if you are going to attack or want to get some real low down.

At the peak of the argument, Bob will sink off and sidemove. "All right—I'll write the story and plenty of it," Bob giggles and the statesman starts to worry. One thing a statesman does not like is ridicule, and they all know the Allen-Pearson asbestos keyboard.

WOUND-HEALER

Along will stroll Drew Pearson a day or so later, nonchalant, cool and friendly, to drop in to chat with the angered statesman. He's received very coldly, but Pearson proceeds to chat as if nothing had happened. Whereupon the statesman invariably will say, "Now, I wish when you wanted a story that you'd come along and not send that blank Bob Allen to see me."

Then Drew will say, "Yes, I wish I could. Bob does goes under people's skins. I don't know why he does that. In fact, and this is very confidential, please don't tell Bob whatever you do, I killed the story he wrote about you the other day."

This is a relief and Pearson is in right. The statesman then proceeds to tell how fond he is of him, how he appreciates his friendship and then loosens up and tells the whole story. This is all in conversation. And a few days later the statesman will be wondering how all the "inside news" got out. Being so busy talking about himself, he does not realize that it was he who told the story.

Then again, a great many inside stories are told to the boys for various reasons. First, officials have occasionally used this column as a feeler. That is why it happens that what is purported to be accurate, inside information, does not always come to pass. The public reaction was not right, and the officials change their plans. You can't blame the boys for that. They must do a favor once in a while, and rest assured they get many in return.

GARRULOUS WASHINGTON

Then, of course, some information comes from just pure, cussed human nature. A committee member is peeved, a little cabinet person is angry and spills the beans. From this source comes a great deal of information about trading, dickering, lobbying and other sorts of deviltry.

Another great source of information comes from the fact that Washington just loves to talk. Oh, how they love it! As Bob Allen once said, a new-fashioned cocktail and an old-fashioned cocktail make the best source of information. When the tuxedo is on the sordino is off.

Gatherings at Drew Pearson's home in his artistic Georgetown villa have become an institution. For a new congressman to be invited indicates that he is arriving. There is always an interesting attendance. Conversation and other things flow copiously. Peace treaties are written, war is declared, the army reorganized, the Constitution rewritten, the social season is discussed, art appreciated. Everybody goes home happy and Allen and Pearson have enough material to last for several days.

And so the Merry-Go-Round merrily keeps going around.

(Copyright, 1936)

The Mailbag

This department belongs to The People. Letters to the editor on various subjects are welcomed and will be published, provided they do not contain abusive and personal references. Their publication does not necessarily imply that the opinions they express are shared by The Journal. Letters must be signed, although signatures will be omitted upon request.

FLOWER SHOW

To the Editor: The Orange county garden clubs wish me to extend to your organization, their very grateful appreciation for your generous publicity in regard to the recent county flower show. As an experimental effort in the face of many obstacles, we realize that much of the success of the show was due to the cooperation and helpfulness of the press, and we are especially indebted to The Journal. As co-workers on the managing committee Mrs. Paul and I wish to offer 350 our own thanks to the paper and its assistance.

MAUDE K. ALDEN

Secretary Orange County Garden Clubs, Anaheim.

What Other Editors Say

CONGRESS WITH BACKBONE

(St. Louis Post-Dispatch)
We make no prophecy as to who will be elected president in November. From the available evidence, however, it must be assumed that Mr. Roosevelt at the moment has an even or better than an even chance to be chosen. We can only gauge the probable course of Mr. Roosevelt as a second-term president by the record of his first term. That record has been one of constant extension of the federal power through "must" legislation in congress.

We need in any case a congress with backbone, a congress that will resist both the bludgeonings and the blandishments of the executive, a congress that will subject every offered measure to the most searching examination.

We need a congress that will seek by the fullest debate to determine whether or not a measure is constitutional; a congress that will resist attempts of the government at Washington to build itself up at the expense of rights reserved to the states and the people; a congress that will sternly set its face against efforts to do by indirect or subterfuge what can only be done, if the orderly processes of our democratic form of government are to survive, by forthright amendment of the constitution.

Journalaffs

Howdy, folks. A household budget is one of those things you start on Sept. 1 and forget on Sept. 15.

At any rate, there seems to be a general agreement that good citizenship requires the other fellow to obey the traffic laws.

Inquisitive Person to Stammerer—Did you go to a school for your stammering?

Stammerer—N-n-no, I-I-I picked it up m-m-myself.

She—But can you support me properly, Oswald?

He—Why, with my salary and your alimony, we'll be sitting on top of the world!

BACK TO SCHOOL

"Make a sentence using the word VIADUCT."

"He threw a tomato at me and that's viaduct."

It isn't what you think about a girl that counts—it is what she thinks you think about her.

A champion diver recently fell six stories from a skyscraper and lived to tell the story. That makes a total of seven stories.

One Man's Opinion

By Duncan Ellsworth Clark

EDITOR'S NOTE—Here is an informative, analytical daily feature on current topics. The opinions expressed in this column are not necessarily the same as those held by The Journal.

Greatness of a Nation Lies in Its People

SOMEONE has remarked that the greatness of a nation does not lie in the square miles of territory it covers but rather in the number of square people it has. And, of course, it is true that human assets transcend in importance all other values. If the governmental setup and the social institutions conserve and extend personal worth, the dignity of daily living and the factors which sweeten and ennoble life, then all is well. Without such upward swing of values utility stamps itself upon the endless round of days.

For what good can result from reducing men to the status of machines? What value in coining human lives into worthless gold? What is gained if one cannot see the difference between clanging gears and whirling troubles enveloping flexing muscles and straining nerves? After all, guarantees of liberty, written into laws and constitutions, were meant for men and not for machines.

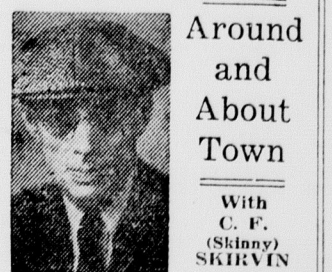

Society can serve no higher purpose than to assert constantly the nobility of its membership. And when this standard is set the membership would assuredly rise to meet it. Any parent or teacher knows that children tend to rise toward the high expectations held before them. Worthy purposes are mighty incentives toward worthy achievement. Expect people to do well; make it attractive for them to do their best and they are likely to do so. Make them objects of suspicion, fear and hostility and they act accordingly.

Government should have for its purpose the worthy achievement of all its citizens. Its efforts should be bent toward making it easy and desirable to conform to acceptable social standards, and difficult and undesirable to do otherwise. If this function of government could be approximated, most of our social and economic troubles would disappear. The federal constitution assumes that "domestic tranquility" is one of its most important purposes. If that be so, then to eliminate everything which disturbs domestic tranquility should be an immediate and continuous objective.

Social disorders, industrial anarchy, mob violence, wolfish grasping for place and power are so unnecessary, so futile, so stupid. Any disturbance of smoothly operating society is a direct and distinct blow to every member of the body politic. Force and violence, whatever their basis, are always a loss and can never be turned to permanent social advantage.

Skinny Skribbles

Around and About Town

With C. F. (Skinny) SKRIBBIN

In transit.
Met Bill Moore, inquired what was the matter, if anything, and he informed me that he was looking for something he couldn't find. O. K., old pal, says I, send it right over to you! He thought I was forwarding a Prudential prospect, and all the time I did not know what he was looking for. What an aimless lot of moving we do, but among it all there often develops some worth while contact which does somebody good. If we are not here for that purpose we certainly have a void mission in life.

Sixteen calls and a trip to Los Angeles, reports a Santa Ana business man, all completed between high noon and 5 p. m. same day. As a speedy messenger the automobile is the vehicle which delivers the goods. When personal contact is preferred you can get to your appointment quickly, and what you say to the appointee face to face seems to stick a little tighter than if sent over a wire, but a telephone saves lots of steps and expense. If we had had the present amount of business in the old horse and buggy days there would be a congestion that no magician could unravel.

Investigation of a report that Coroner Earl Abbey's trip to Arizona was for diagnostic inquiry for an alleged ailment in the vicinity of his heart, has been traced to a source jealous of the coroner's stalwart physique, sartorial attractiveness, and comradery. From an unimpeachable source I learn that if Abbey had to make a selection of a home-site between Arizona and another place, his choice would be the other place.

If the owner of the property in which is located the Community Chest headquarters will repair that threatening spot in the floor my visit will become more frequent. It has a maw that could devour people whose displacement is no more than mine. I wouldn't mention this but there are a number of stenographers over there I want to visit.

And then there was the fellow who was such a fishing devotee that he would resort to any expediency to get a piscatorial excursion. So he had his teeth pulled as an excuse for his community seclusion.

With customary cooperation Harry Owens says yes to my request for oversight of the affairs of the community for Sunday. I volunteered that I had thrown my protecting influence around the town for six days, and I thought he should relieve me of the responsibility, at least on the day on which he was more qualified to be in authority than I. Under his supervision, and assistance from other ministers, the day passed quietly and profitably for all those who came under the wholesome influence of their ministrations.

Did you know there was a boxer movement in Santa Ana? Two Fourth and Bush street department stores put the boxes out on the street and the population starts to move 'em. No serious consequences are anticipated. In fact it appears to have all the earmarks of a mutual arrangement. Now don't tell me you haven't picked up a box that just suited for some home use.

Dr. Jacobs, who offers no differential when I want to talk to him face to face, refused friendly assistance when I met him corner of Fourth and Main last Saturday noon. Was waiting for the family car and it arrived o. t., which prevented any argument. Prior to the arrival of the family car "Doc" said a good friend had advised the indulgence of food. He refused. Which reminded him of a friend who made frequent professional calls, and whose ponderosity had reached the excess stage. Several weeks elapsed before the aforesaid friend reappeared, and he had disposed of so much weight that he did not look like the same man. Information was obtained as to how the change had taken place, and "Doc" recommended the treatment to a good friend of his, which was refused.

And the entire day was ruined. The blonde failed to appear, at least as a blonde, which reminds me of the story of the young man who was to be married and he sought advice from a friend who had traveled the matrimonial journey for a number of years. As to whether a blonde or a brunette had the best disposition. The man with the experience told him it did not make any difference—that his wife had been both.

Stopped Pat Doane long enough to exchange amenities of questionable propriety. Before he could get away I had compelled him to slip me a feature story dated 1891. If he does not do it I'll decorate his left eye. The right one is no good anyway.

The fellow who said that beauty was only skin deep knew his cosmetics